Gen. Clark 'Encouraged' After Session With Rhee In Seoul Over Armistice

East German Revolt Still Smoldering

Uranium Mines In Saxony Sabotaged, Communists Admit

BERLIN (AP)— Communist East Germany admitted today sabotage had occurred in the Soviet-managed uranium mines and violence continued elsewhere against the Red puppet regime.

The communist party leadership hurled new face-saving charges that Western agents had parachuted into East Germany to spread havoc after the workers' revolt flared last Wednesday. U. S. officials derided the accusations as fantastic.

ADN, the Soviet-controlled German news agency, confirmed reports that the anti-Red mutiny had struck in the Saxony uranium fields which have been exploited by the Russians since 1947 in the atomic weapons race.

ADN quoted statements of loyalty by uranium miners saying they would expand their efforts to make up for lost production "and to reconstruct the areas destroyed by the fascist provocateurs."

A statement by the Socialist Unity (Communist) party's Central Committee said a "great number" of the parachutists had been captured, but admitted that in the sixth day of martial law carried on by Russian troops and armor, "quiet is not yet entirely secured."

As reports flew that the Russians were about to throw out the satellite East German government of Prime Minister Otto Grotewohl, the party declaration attested to the still-continuing strikes with frantic appeals to the 18 million captive East Germans to go back to work.

Throwing of restraint, the statement made clear the magnitude of the workers' rebellion—the most gigantic rebuff from a captive civilian population in the history of Moscow-directed communism.

The "enemy," the Communists said, incited "millions" of East Germans to take to the streets in wild disorder and "threatened the security and lives of workers of (East) German Democratic Republic."

The "Fascist agents," also planned to incite farmers to destroy their crops, the party said.

The Reds said the parachutists —agents of "American warmakers and their West German tools"— landed in Saxony and Thuringia after the revolt broke out last Wednesday. The Western Allies already have denied in the strongest terms that they had anything to do with the rebellion.

The Communists said some Western "agents" equipped with weapons and radio sets had been captured on the superhighway, the Autobahn, between Berlin and Leipzig. The statement, however, did not elaborate the number, nationality or fate of those assertedly captured.

The party promised something like a general amnesty to all strikers who would return to work. It ordered officials to differentiate between "honorable workers" and "Western agents who bilked them into this grave error." But it also grimly warned "tens of thousands" of party men that they should have broken the strike and thus had become suspect of playing more than passive roles.

UNREST GROWS IN RED GERMANY. New anti-Communist riots blazed a trail across East Germany, as red tanks and troops sealed off streets connecting East and West Berlin (above), where the situation is reported quiet. Strikes paralyzed almost every major industry and near the Soviet-zone-Czech border 100,000 uranium workers staged a pitched battle with Red soldiers. East Berliners attempting to flee to the West, like the two women pictured below, found themselves "escorted" back to the Communist zone.

Canton's Former "Keno King" Is Shot to Death

CANTON, O. (AP)—John Nickles, Canton's one-time "keno king," was found shot to death today in a machine shop.

Nickles, about 57, was lying in a corner of the shop, and Coroner E. B. Mozes said he was so blood-covered it could not be determined immediately whether he was "killed by one shot or riddled."

A Greek immigrant and one-time dishwasher, "Little Nick," as he was known in the local underworld, was reportedly a millionaire during his days as "keno king." His largest operation was the Blue Arrow Club just outside the city's northwest limits. It was closed about two years ago.

Nickles has an appeal pending on his conviction for possessing stolen bonds.

"Big 3" Will Open Bermuda Talks July 8

French Cabinet Crisis Could Pose Possibility of Delay

WASHINGTON (AP)—A date—July 8—has been picked for the start of Big Three talks in Bermuda, but some mild confusion remained today over how firm it is.

A White House statement yesterday spoke of July 8 as "the present target date" for opening the conference; but added that "this plan naturally is dependent upon its acceptability to the French government."

An announcement from the London residence of Prime Minister Churchill said the start of the talks "has been fixed for July 8." An informed British source said the date was fixed "with the confident assumption that there will be a French government by that time."

On the day the plan for a Big Three session was announced last month, the French government of Premier Rene Mayer fell, and four efforts to form a new one have failed since then. President Vincent Auriol yesterday asked former Premier Antoine Pinay to try.

Originally, it was hoped that the talks—which Churchill has been plugging as a possible preliminary to Big Four sessions with Premier Malenkov of Russia—would get under way late this month. But the absence of a government in Paris threw a wrench into those plans.

Eisenhower will fly to Bermuda in his plane the Columbine, leaving here July 7.

Churchill will travel on the 42,500-ton battleship Vanguard, probably sailing June 30.

Roundhouse Burns in Carey

Cab of Engine Also Destroyed

CAREY — An estimated loss of $65,000 resulted when the New York Central Railroad roundhouse on Glen Ave. and the cab of one engine inside were destroyed by fire Sunday. Another engine was extensively damaged but officials said it can be repaired.

The fire broke out on the roof of the five-stall building and it was completely burned away. The walls were left standing, but railroad officials said they would have to be torn down before reconstruction could be started.

Victor Dunn discovered the fire at 4:30 a.m. as he was driving on Route 699. He saw the flames and called the Carey Fire Department. No one was on duty at the roundhouse at the time.

Gen. Schuyler Picked As Gruenther Aide

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today nominated Maj. Gen. Cortlandt van Rensslaer Schuyler to be chief of staff of the European defense forces under Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther.

The President also asked the Senate to approve promotion of Schuyler to the rank of lieutenant general for the new assignment.

Thermometers Soar to June Highs

Record-Smashing Heat Wave Marks Advent of Summer

By The Associated Press

Summer officially arrived Sunday, ushered in by a heat wave that set many record June temperatures and entered its fourth day today.

It was attended by record June temperatures, sudden, violent and drenching storms, water shortages and threats of drought. Scarcely any section failed to feel the blows, one way or another.

It began Friday when spreading heat ran temperatures up to Ft. Smith, Ark.'s June record of 105, Laredo, Tex.'s 107 and Ashaldin, Neb.'s 108 peak. Storms generated by the day's stifling heat and humidity wreaked minor tornado damage in Nebraska and wind damage in Iowa.

Saturday was worse. Chicago had its hottest June day on record —104.2. A 60-year record was set at Albany, N. Y., and Louisville, Ky. There was a 107-degree temperature in Arkansas, 105 at Oklahoma City, 103 at St. Louis, 101 at Terre Haute, Ind.

The shifting edge of the hot air blanket let cooling breezes into Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa and Indiana Sunday, but the East and South remained well covered at summer's official beginning at noon, and the Great Plains warmed up again.

The mercury ran up to 105 at Russell and Dodge City, Kan. A 20-year June heat record was equaled by Rochester, N. Y.'s 100. New June marks around 100 were set at four Tennessee cities—Memphis, Chattanooga, Knoxville and Nashville.

In the broiling Southwest, Texas had 100-degree readings nearly everywhere, up to Abilene and Ft. Worth's 105; it was 110 at Blythe, Calif.; Yuma, Ariz.; and Presidio, Tex Gila Bend, Ariz., topped the list with 112.

Several Texas cities rationed water. So did some Chicago suburbs.

Three suburbs of Springfield, Illinois' capital were completely without water. A Springfield official said their connecting mains were too small to handle the demand.

A drought threatened vegetable and tobacco crops in Connecticut. An agricultural agent said the situation would become critical in another week.

Lightning from a heat-generated storm killed three persons in New York City and injured seven others. A similar storm brought lightning deaths to two persons in Ohio.

Wind and hail flailed Wichita,

Mt. Victory Child Killed In Accident

Special to The Star

MT. VICTORY — David Lynn Carpenter, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Carpenter of Mt. Victory, died in San Antonio Hospital in Kenton Saturday night as the result of a freak accident involving a parked truck.

The vehicle, owned by C. K. Elliott, Mt. Victory livestock dealer, and operated by Mr. Carpenter, had stood at the latter's residence all day. About 7 p.m., while the small boy was playing, the truck's air brakes failed suddenly causing the truck to roll into the child, and he was thrown against a tree. He was rushed to the hospital and was pronounced dead shortly after arrival, about 8:30.

Born July 12, 1951, at San Antonio Hospital, David Lynn was the second son of Floyd and Sue Farrington Carpenter. The family moved to Mt. Victory in November from West Mansfield.

Surviving with the parents are two brothers, Danny Lee, 3, and Donald Lawrence, five and a half months, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Carpenter of West Mansfield and Mr. and Mrs. Louie Farrington of Waverly, formerly of Byhalia.

Funeral services will be conducted Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the Ballinger Funeral Home at West Mansfield. Burial will be in Green Lawn Cemetery south of West Mansfield. Friends may call at the funeral home.

CHRISTOFFEL SENTENCED

WASHINGTON (AP) — Harold R. Christoffel today was sentenced to 16 months to four years in prison for falsely swearing before a congressional committee in 1947 he was never a Communist.

The sentence was imposed by U. S. District Judge F. Dickinson Letts, who denied Christoffel bail pending another appeal.

Ike Facing Decision On Foreign Aid

Debates Wisdom Of Pressuring Allies Into Defense Speedup

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower probably will have to decide this week whether he wants to put heavy financial pressure on America's allies to speed agreement on a West European army.

The House last week voted to withhold by law about a billion dollars in foreign aid funds until European Defense Community treaties are ratified. Yesterday, Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) suggested a compromise which would give the President discretionary authority to do the same thing.

Legislative leaders may find out at a White House conference Wednesday whether the President believes such a financial threat to West European nations would be wise.

The EDC treaties, ratified so far only by Western Germany, would call up 500,000 men from six nations for service in a unified army.

Livingston T. Merchant, assistant secretary of state, told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in testimony on the foreign aid bill he believes "the logic of events" will bring ratification of the EDC treaties also by France, Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Merchant said:

"We must not, in my judgment, become impatient and make the passage of EDC and ratification by a certain date a condition precendent for aid . . ."

The testimony of Merchant and other officials, taken behind closed doors by the committee, was made public over the week end.

In it Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, was disclosed to have told senators he believes Russia is "pulling back" in the cold war. Bradley said the Soviets fear increased U. S. military strength and need time to consolidate their position at home.

Bradley said the U. S. already is stockpiling equipment and supplies in West Germany for the arming of German divisions if they are ever created.

The hearing transcript included Taft's statement that it is "ridiculous" to claim the U. S. is saving money by financing the manufacture of fighter planes in Britain and France.

The Senate Republican leader said funds those countries receive under the offshore-purchase program represent economic aid which he asserted will be used "for socialistic purposes in England and for something else in France."

In the fiscal year ending June 30, such contracts reported let total 272 million dollars worth of equipment in Britain, and 263 million in France.

RHEE MEETS OPPOSITION AT HOME. Cho Byong Ok (above, left) former home minister of Korea and ambassador to Washington, voiced opposition to the government of Syngman Rhee (right), president of South Korea and to the release of anti-Communist POWs. Cho thinks it impossible for Korea to take independent action at this time.

Crestline VFW Commander Dies in Crash

Special to The Star

CRESTLINE—Raymond Francis Light, 30, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Light of Crestline, was killed at 10:50 p.m. Sunday when his car was struck by a New York Central freight train at Vernon Junction, on the Shelby-Crestline road in Richland County.

He is survived by his parents, two sisters, Mrs. Laura Shirk of Mt. Gilead and Mrs. Cathryn Caskey of Lima and his grandfather, William Light of Crestline. A brother, William, was killed in the early part of World War II.

The car was demolished. The body was taken to the Garverick Funeral Home in Crestline.

Raymond was commander of the Harley-Helfrick VFW Post in Crestline.

Dr. Flemming Plans Stockpile Of Manpower

ODM Boss Lines Up Executive Talent In Case of Emergency

WASHINGTN (AP)—The Office of Defense Mobilization plans to stockpile executive talent, as well as war materials, for any future war emergency.

Director Arthur S. Flemming, it was learned today, expects to obtain, from key officials he is "borrowing" temporarily from industry, promises that they will come back to Washington when and if the nation mobilizes.

Flemming hopes to obtain from the men and their companies assurances that:

1. Having served six months or a year in ODM, they will return to Washington periodically for brief "refresher" tours of duty, perhaps as consultants on special defense problems.

2. They will keep up to date the information in their personal loyalty-security files here.

The latter assurance is not being requested because of any fear that the industry talent will suddenly turn subversive. It is a matter of saving time if the experts are recalled in a crisis.

Officials have learned by experience that, in emergency periods, the Federal Bureau of Investigation can fall 60 to 90 days behind in its task of completing security checks on the flood of new appointees. In the meantime the men are unable to function in many jobs involving national security.

Officials said Flemming is sold on the policy of rotating appointees. His six top men, assistant directors who will handle the ODM's major divisions, and a number of other important subordinates will work on this basis. When they go home, other industry men will replace them.

An ODM reorganization, undertaken since the agency gained permanent status a week ago, also provides that each division have a permanent deputy from the regular career government service. Flemming believes this will serve to provide continuity in policy and operations.

Blazing Air Battles Cost Reds 6 MIGs

SEOUL (AP)—Hot U. S. Sabre jet pilots today blasted six Communist MIGs from the North Korean skies.

The 35th jet ace of the war was crowned in blazing aerial warfare which extended nearly to the Manchurian border. Col. Robert Baldwin of Sherman Oaks, Calif., qualified as an ace by downing his fifth MIG. He also has damaged three.

Ground action was light except for continued pounding by the Reds against South Korean lines on the East-Central Front.

Three Russian-built MIG jets were destroyed and two others damaged, the Fifth Air Force reported, by Sabres shielding Allied fighter-bombers hitting a communications center northwest of Sakchu, near the Manchurian border.

The fighter-bomber pilots reported they destroyed the main buildings of a communications relay station.

Later in the day, Sabres knocked down three more MIGs while protecting planes pounding a rail bridge near Pyongyang, capital of North Korea.

Air Force, Navy and Marine planes also pounded Red positions on the muddy battlefront.

After a night-long see-saw fight, raiders of the South Korean 8th Division recaptured a dominant hill on Red-held Finger Ridge, at the west flank of last week's big Communist offensive.

U. S. troops near the Panmunjom truce site had a brief long-range small arms battle with perhaps a company of Chinese in the heaviest action on the Western Front in two weeks.

Britain Not Bound To Fight for Rhee, Churchill Declares

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Churchill told a cheering House of Commons today "we have not committed ourselves in any way to go forward and conquer the whole area of Korea and place it under the authority of Mr. Syngman Rhee."

At the same time, the prime minister disclosed Britain had sent a stiff note to Rhee denouncing his "treacherous action."

Churchill said the South Korean president's release of thousands of anti-Communist prisoners of war had created a situation "full of danger."

New U.S. Attorney For Ohio Nominated

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today nominated a new U. S. attorney for Ohio.

He sent to the Senate the nomination of Hugh K. Martin for Southern Ohio. He would succeed Ray J. O'Donnell.

Martin, whose home is Columbus also is a practicing attorney.

Flies From Tokyo For Showdown

Can Sign Without ROK Approval, U.N. Commander Says

SEOUL (AP) — Gen. Mark Clark, U. N. commander, conferred today with President Syngman Rhee, then announced he can sign an armistice without South Korean approval, but he said doing so would "depend on instructions from my government."

"I am authorized at the present time to sign the armistice which has been drawn up," he told newsmen after what was apparently a showdown meeting with the rebellious Rhee.

"I am not trying to be overly optimistic. There are many problems. I feel somewhat more encouraged; more hopeful," he added.

Clark said he could not reveal why he was encouraged.

What effect the talk might have on an armistice was not apparent.

Although Clark indicated the truce document was virtually complete, he said there still are problems and added, "The truce timetable is more or less up to the Communists." He said a truce could be completed promptly "if the Reds desire it."

Clark's comments indicated the free-swinging South Korean government would check with the U. N. Command before taking any more such lone actions as its single-handed release of 27,000 anti-Red Korean prisoners since Wednesday night.

Rhee's action froze the armistice talks on the edge of signing and left the UNC a plump target for the Reds, who demanded recapture of the prisoners and U. N. control of South Korea if the Allies wanted an armistice.

South Korea showed no remorse or inclination to change its stand against any truce which would leave Korea divided despite a burning Allied anger. Its Prime Minister insisted just before the Clark-Rhee meeting that South Korea gave the Allies command of its troops and could just as easily take them off the battlefront.

However, Clark made it clear that he feels he is boss of all U. N. forces—including the 16 ROK divisions. He said there is no question that the ROK Army is "under my command."

Asked if he thinks the ROK troops loyal, Clark replied with an emphatic "Yes."

He was asked if he would sign an armistice without advance approval by Rhee. He told newsmen the armistice is between the U.N. commander and the Red Chinese-North Korean command, and said:

"I am authorized at the present time to sign the armistice which has been drawn up."

Asked if Rhee would accept an armistice that doesn't unify North and South Korea, Clark smiled and answered:

"I hope so."

The U.N. commander said Hypothetically . . . (a truce) could

A-Spy Sympathizers Bitter

Eisenhower Denounced At Rosenberg Rites

NEW YORK (AP) — Funeral services for Julius and Ethel Rosenberg erupted yesterday into tearful praise of the electrocuted atom spies and angry attacks on U. S. government officials.

Defense Atty. Emanuel Bloch declared in a funeral oration that the executions were "an act of cold, deliberate murder."

He said he placed "the murder of the Rosenbergs at the door of President Eisenhower, Atty. Gen. Brownell and J. Edgar Hoover."

Bloch praised the New York City couple—who died Friday night in the electric chair at Sing Sing Prison—for what he called their "courage and heroism."

Semi-orthodox Jewish services were held for the Rosenbergs at a Brooklyn funeral home chapel, largest in the Brooklyn-Manhattan area. About 500 mourners jammed the chapel, and a crowd estimated by police at 10,000 milled around outside in 93-degree heat.

The chapel filled with hisses and murmurs of "No" when Rabbi Abraham Cronbach said, "Let us give them (the prosecutors) credit for this: that they did what they thought was right."

Cronbach, professor emeritus of the Hebrew Union College of Cincinnati, presided over the service. He was one of a delegation of four clergymen who urged President Eisenhower last week to commute the Rosenbergs' sentences to life imprisonment.

The rabbi told his protesting audience not to be vindictive, even though the executions "broke our hearts." He continued:

"We must demonstrate that we are among those most loyal to America. We must not permit any ground for accusations of remission in our American citizenship. We gain when America gains and we lose when America loses."

In his attack on government leaders, Bloch declared:

"The people should know that

TO STORE WHEAT SAFELY AT HOME FOR GOVERNMENT LOAN FOLLOW THESE STEPS
1. Clean and spray bins and surrounding building surfaces NOW.
2. We will custom dry your wheat if it is over 12% moisture when combined. Damp wheat will get weavily in a hurry. Should be 12% or lower for safe storage. High moisture content is the principal reason for farm stored wheat getting out of condition.
3. Use sheet metal, hardware cloth or other materials to make bin rodent proof.
4. Be sure windows and other openings are in good repair to prevent entry of birds.
5. Fumigate promptly within two to three weeks after grain is stored.
6. Observe condition of wheat often during storage period.

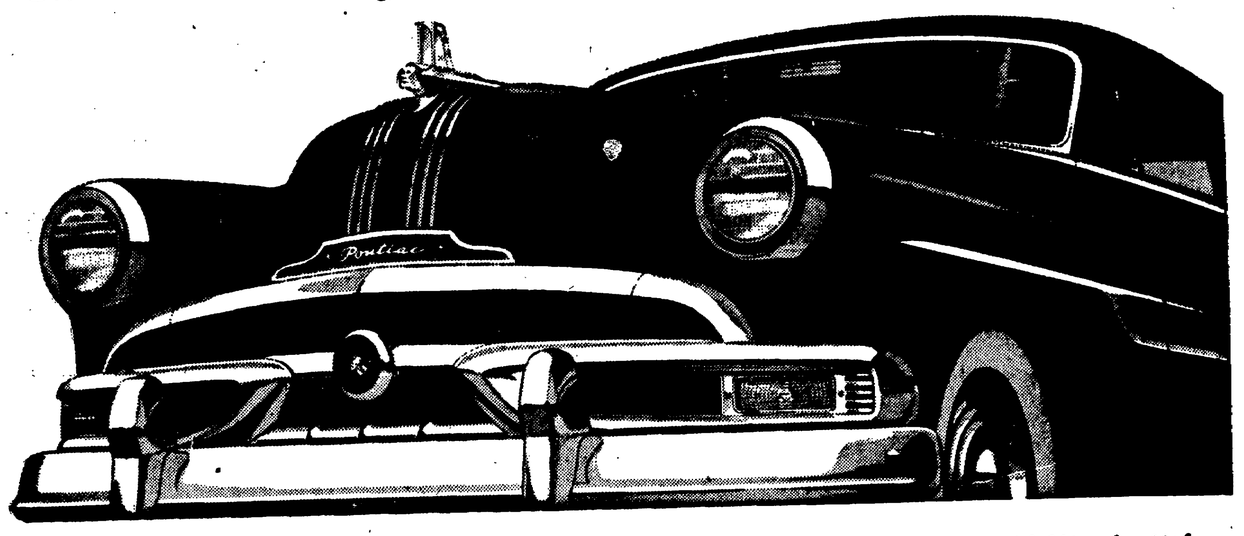
POWER! PERFORMANCE! AND LOW PRICE!

Drive it and Learn Why Dollar for Dollar You Can't Beat a Pontiac



GENERAL MOTORS LOWEST PRICED EIGHT

Pontiac

Once you're behind the wheel of a new Pontiac, it's hard to believe it's priced so low.

You thrill to outstanding performance that lets you slip through city traffic or cruise the open road with power to spare.

You relax in roomy, luxurious interiors, and enjoy the satisfaction of driving the most distinctive beauty on the road.

And because it's big and rugged, Pontiac gives you the feeling of road-hugging safety, yet maneuvers so easily that driving is almost effortless.

In fact, there's nothing to suggest that it's priced just a few dollars above the lowest.

Come in soon and prove to yourself that dollar for dollar you can't beat a Pontiac.

Tally Ho Club Reunion Held

Was Old-Time Marion Social Group

The eighteenth annual reunion of the Tally Ho Club, young men's social club which flourished in Marion in the early 1900's was held Saturday at Eaglewood Club, three miles south of the city on Route 4.

The reunion was attended by 10 of the surviving members of a club enrollment which reached a total of 52 when the club was at the peak of its activity.

Opening in the afternoon with an informal exchange of reminiscences, the reunion included a 6:30 dinner served on the Eaglewood Club lawn by the Eaglewood owner, Mrs. Marguerite Ramroth. This was followed by a brief formal session in which officers were elected for the ensuing year and a memorial program was conducted by Harry S. Elliott as a tribute to members who have died, with special mention of Fred Diebold, whose death occurred since last year's reunion. He died at his home in Florida.

Elliott was elected president for the coming year, Charles Sechrist vice president, and Fred B. Scherff secretary-treasurer. Carl Bausinger was last year's president and had charge of Saturday's meeting.

Arrangements were made for holding the annual reunion in the future on the third Saturday of June. Eaglewood will be the meeting place.

Letters were read from the following members unable to be present: Samuel Bader, Elyria, O.; Carl Batty, Flushing, N. Y.; Wallace Court, Seneca Castle, N. Y.; George E. McCormick, Hemet, Calif.; Ray Robosson, Detroit, Mich.; Charles W. Rice, Union City, Ind., and William D. Terpany, Waterloo, Ia.

Present at Saturday's reunion, in addition to the four officers already named, were Clayborne Hudson, Earl Beicher, Jay Vaughan, Dr. A. B. Lawson and Monta Walters, all of Marion, and Fred B. Jessop of Chester, Pa.

The Tally Ho Club occupied the entire second floor of the old Grand Opera House Building on South State St., now the site of the Elks Building and Ohio Theater. Club dances were held on the building's third floor.

Mrs. Anderson Heads Protected Home Circle

Election of officers for the new year was held when Protected Home Circle No. 184 met Friday night in the IOOF hall.

Mrs. Alma Anderson was elected president; Mrs. Dessie Carpenter, past president; John Spicer, vice president; Mrs. Evelyn England, guardian; Mrs. Rose Seiter, chaplain; Mrs. Dortha Eaton, guide; John Harbin, companion; Isaac Eaton, sentinel; Mrs. Mabel Britton, watchman; Mrs. Mary Fout, pianist; Mrs. Ruth Arndt, captain.

Installation will be held in August.

Named to serve on the auditing committee were Mrs. Marie Schultz, Mrs. Anderson and T. G. Kraus.

Prizes during the evening were won by Mrs. Eaton, Mrs. Seiter, Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. Theresa Payne and Chester Daly. Readings were given by Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. Anderson. The next meeting will be July 3.

HIRE TEACHERS

CAREY — The Carey Exempted Village Board of Education has employed three new teachers, two to fill vacancies created by resignations and a third to take charge of a new first grade. They are: Miss Phyllis Clayton of Maplewood, Mrs. Esther Leathers of Cygnet, and Miss Mary Louise Rich of Bluffton.

SITUATION IN HAND. Neva Jane Langley, "Miss America of 1953," demonstrates her skill at filling a milk pail during the Putnam County Dairy Festival at Eatonton, Ga. Baby Doll, the high production cow belonging to the Green Glades Farm, plays the contented role for Neva Jane.

New Building Planned For Mt. Gilead Fair

MT. GILEAD — Construction of the new Junior Fair exhibit building on the local fair ground will start July 1, according to plans announced this week by the county-wide Junior Fair building committee.

At a meeting last week it was decided to use available pledged funds for the building proper and to continue efforts to secure the additional funds needed for a concrete floor, materials for a stage, and display booths.

At the meeting, Ralph Kirkham and Sons of Powell were hired to construct the building and the low bids of H. P. Squires and Sons of Chesterville for roofing material and the Cardington Lumber Co. for framing lumber were accepted.

The building as planned will be 42'x104.

Committee Plans Fireworks Display In Mt. Gilead

Special to The Star

MT. GILEAD — The second annual fireworks display of the Mt. Gilead Volunteer Fire Department will be held Saturday night, July 4, at the Mt. Gilead fairgrounds. The fireworks display, for the benefit of the Fire Department's equipment fund, is scheduled to get underway at about 9 p.m. in front of the grandstand and will consist mostly of aerial bursts.

The Morrow County sesquicentennial committee is cooperating with the firemen and the county's part in the Ohio observance will be held prior to the fireworks demonstration. Mrs. Mary Wheeler of the sesquicentennial committee is in charge of the program.

Starting at 6 p.m. on the evening of July 4 Boy and Girl Scouts will have a display of handicraft items and antiques in the floral hall at the fairgrounds. A sesquicentennial parade will start at about 7:30 p.m. The parade will assemble at the fairgrounds and will march around the track.

In the parade will be Boy and Girl Scouts, patriotic groups and organizations from the county, a Boy Scout float, a float for Queen Freda Patrick of Sparta and the members of her court, high school bands, the Cardington drum and bugle corp, and other organizations.

SEEK BIDS

MT. GILEAD — Advertising for bids for improvements at the Mt. Gilead School were started this week. Contracts will be let Friday, July 17. The improvements will include the remodeling of the old gymnasium-auditorium into a permanent auditorium. This will include excavating under the stage for dressing rooms and storage rooms, enlargement of the stage, changing the slope of the floor in the auditorium and installation of permanent seats. The old girls locker room will be remodeled into a music practice room. Area of the Farm Shop building will be doubled with 15 feet added to the building on the west and an extension of 20 feet made to the south. The enlargement will permit two classrooms in the building and provide room for the shop and drawing classroom.

RAIL FANS MAKE TRIP

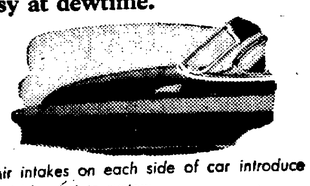
WORLD'S ONLY VERTICAL VALVE V8
Air Conditioning on wheels comes of age!

Now you can have a car that's as comfortable on hot days as your air-conditioned home, office or favorite theater.

Now you can ride in draft-free coolness at the temperature level you choose — even when the outside reading is 110° and more.

Now you can take a full complement of passengers through the thick of traffic on a sweltering day — and each one of you will keep looking and feeling fresh as a daisy at dewtime.



Air intakes on each side of car introduce outside air into system.

You do this with the new Buick AIRCONDITIONER—the completely practical unit available at extra cost in 1953 SUPER and ROADMASTER Sedan and Riviera models.

But note this: what Buick put into its AIRCONDITIONER goes far beyond the usual.

For the advanced design of this Buick unit provides dual roof ducts that distribute up to 300 cubic feet of cooled, freshened, filtered, air per minute to all parts of the car interior evenly and constantly—without icy blasts and drafts on your neck, shoulders, legs.

Grilles in Buick's exclusive dual roof ducts insure draft-free distribution of conditioned air—and also provide individual control of air direction as desired.

What's more, these exclusive roof ducts have individually controlled air directors above the side windows. So each window-seat passenger can guide a gentle breeze of conditioned air exactly where he wants it.

Of course, the advanced Buick AIRCONDITIONER is automatic.

You switch it on, choose the temperature setting you want — and that level of coolness is maintained constantly. It thoroughly conditions the air around you — automatically. It carries off heat, stale air, tobacco smoke—automatically. It continuously introduces outside air into the system—automatically.

Return air grilles on package shelf help maintain continuous circulation of conditioned, pollen-free air.

It's fast-acting, too. Even after an hour or more locked up under summer's hottest sun, the car interior can be brought to a delightfully cool comfort in a matter of minutes.

And it's really compact. The cooling unit itself fits neatly on a narrow shelf in the big trunk compartment—leaves plenty of room for luggage and the like.

Why not drop in on us and try a demonstration?

You'll find that the amazing Buick AIRCONDITIONER with its exclusive dual roof ducts is the ultimate comfort in hot-climate driving.

*Buick Airconditioner available in 1953 Roadmaster and Super Riviera and Sedan models at extra cost.

American Leadership

If it be true the United States is losing its world leadership because other nations are asserting independence of its aims, it does not follow that Americans have fumbled their responsibility.

Americans never expected to dominate the world. Their motive in transfusing their wealth into the battered nations of Europe during and after World War II was to save them from domination by the Soviet Union, not to capture them for domination by the United States.

There is a kind of leadership which does not entail domination. It has caused the United States to be the world's most attractive refuge for the last 150 years—the sanctuary of oppressed peoples in all parts of the earth.

It is the leadership which caused those who couldn't come here to set up new governments of their own patterned after the constitutional government of the United States.

It caused Americans to share by means of charity, missions, loans and grants the fruits of their own abundant life. It caused them to become the foremost examples in all mankind of what can be expected to follow a release of individual incentive through the guarantee of individual freedom.

It is the leadership that caused Americanism to be the most feared obstacle to the plots and plans of despots. As long as it exists and continues to attract victims of old-world isms, every dictator in Europe and Asia will live in dread of it.

That has been America's traditional leadership. Americans never aspired to build an empire or even carve out a sphere of economic influence. They had no ambitions of domination, or at least none which survived the men who tried to foist them on an unwilling public.

If it really be true that the United States has "lost" its leadership of the free world because it cannot dictate and cannot even rely on foreign governments to go along with its policies, a great many Americans will wonder who believed that kind of leadership would be worth gaining.

Year to Remember

There was the year it snowed in June, the year the barn burned down, the year the old folks celebrated their golden wedding anniversary and the year they put through the new road.

These were memorable years, as were the years during which drouths and floods occurred, the biggest building in town burned down, the Sunday school treasurer absconded with the funds, the big tree in the front yard fell on the house and the minister's wife was picked up in a raid on a bingo parlor.

But for 1953, the mark of distinction seems likely to come from the effect of all that spring rainfall on the June strawberry crop. This may go into contemporary history as the year of the strawberries.

If so, it will be without apology, even though this also may be the year of the Korean truce, the death of Stalin, the beginning of the Square Deal and the end of "Doggie in The Window." For those of us who live from one strawberry crop to another, what could be more memorable than a grand climax in the patch behind the garage

No Substitute for Good Faith

Whether or not Sen. Bricker's idea for outlawing treaties that go against the Constitution gets past Congress this year and goes to the states as a proposed constitutional amendment, one point has been cleared up.

There is no substitute for good faith in government.

The Eisenhower administration would make no treaty which might be misused to set aside a provision of the Constitution. Sen. Bricker's proposed amendment is unnecessary while Dwight Eisenhower is president. His faith is good.

The President and Sen. Bricker can agree on the necessity of protecting the Constitution from future treaty-makers acting in bad faith. But as Sen. Bricker pointed out after a White House conference on June 16, they are having trouble with the wording of the proposed constitutional amendment.

They are afraid men of bad faith will twist it to suit their purposes.

There is no substitute for good faith.

President Eisenhower and Sen. Bricker both know some of the support for the proposal is coming from senators interested solely in using a common-sense safeguard to cripple executive authority in foreign relations.

These senators are not acting in good faith. They are more interested in helping themselves than in helping to protect the U. S. Constitution.

Japan Next

Unless the Reds in their last-minute zeal to gain military prestige make it impossible for the United States and its token allies to disengage themselves in Korea, a truce will be arranged.

In due time, barring the possibility of still more gestures like the pre-truce military offensive, there will be a peace of sorts. The prospects are cloudy, but the post-peace problems are clear.

Most of them, once Korea has been pacified, will center around the Japanese island. Japan has been the main consideration all along.

New Peace Offensive

By Jay G. Hayden

While the Korean situation took newspaper headlines last week, the U.S. State Department and interchanges between the U.S. and its allies dealt far more with preparation for an expected European peace demarche.

Ever since the beginning of the alliance for the defense of Western Europe, American military and diplomatic officials have expected Russia to attempt to break up this effort by offering to withdraw its armed forces from German soil if the Western power would do the same.

Recent developments not only as to Germany but also with regard to Austria, Yugoslavia, Turkey and Greece have indicated that the Kremlin's whole strategy concerning its European neighbors was undergoing change.

The most startling of all to State Department observers was the series of actions last week in Soviet-occupied Eastern Germany, including settlement with protestant religionists, moderation of the collective farm system, restoration of bank loans for private business, ending discrimination as to ration cards and amnesty for prisoners charged with damage to the state economy.

Earlier, Russia shifted its administrative control in both East Germany and Austria from military to civilians hands and announced measures of political, social and economic relief for Austria similar to those now proclaimed for East Germany.

Assuming they are what they purport to be, U.S. experts believe that Soviet concessions as to Germany and Austria are so far reaching as to endanger Soviet control in these countries.

Coincidentally, Russia has moved to restore full diplomatic relations with Greece and Yugoslavia and notified Turkey that the Soviet Union has relinquished all its previously advanced claims to Turkish territory. The latter was a retreat from Russian demands upon Turkey shortly after World War II, claiming the right to a share in control of the Dardanelles Strait because it was Russia's only outlet to the Mediterranean and demanding cession of the Turkish provinces of Kars, Ardahan and Artvin.

That Russian aggression was so firmly repelled that abandonment of it now is nothing more than a gesture, but it does testify to Russia's desire to improve relations with its neighbors.

There are abundant evidences further that these Russian advances have created a profound impression in Europe.

In West Germany last week, Chancellor Adenauer described a return of the Big Four (Russia, Britain, France and the United States) to the Potsdam agreement as the "nightmare" from which he had been trying to shield his country ever since he assumed power in 1949.

Led by Sir Winston Churchill, Britain, France and the United States have challenged Russia to make good a proposal to open new negotiation for ending foreign occupation of Austria.

Churchill meanwhile has been pressing heavily for a Big Four meeting, to follow the British-French-American gathering in Bermuda late this month, and the prevailing opinion is that Russia held off on Austria in order to use it as a pawn in expected negotiations concerning Germany.

Marion County History Brevities

By EDNA S. DUTTON

Marion, like similar communities, in the mid-Nineteenth Century boasted of an Academy. At some time previous to 1850, owing to the inadequate school laws, nearly every enterprising community had its academy. The best of these institutions were regularly incorporated by the legislature and owned their own property. They drew to them the ambitious sons and daughters of the most cultivated families and when well-managed attracted students from a distance. The instructors were often scholarly men and graduates from colleges and universities. After the public schools began to grow, especially under the impetus furnished by the constitution of 1851, the academies began to lose ground.

Trouble-Makers

By TRUMAN TWILL

Sometimes when we are keeping track of the news from here, there and everywhere we think about a woman who lived in our neighborhood back home.

Let us call her Mrs. Hussey. That was not her name. She kept track of the news from here, there and everywhere. She was an amateur news hawk of the first magnitude. Let's face it. She was a trouble-maker on the side.

She never got anything quite right. Mostly, she muffed the facts because she was in a big, fat hurry to flow off her gossipy mouth. And along with haste she had more than her fair share of malice.

No one ever got the best of it when Mrs. Hussey began her periodic neighborhood broadcasts of the latest information calculated to flip wigs and pop eyeballs. Nothing and no one was spared in the telling.

She earned herself a reputation as a swivel-tongued old bag as people caught on to her. But the old hag always was finding fresh suckers who didn't know her tricks, and they'd take her seriously. So she was able to stir up trouble until she died and was laid away without causing a tear to be shed. Mrs. Hussey was the epitome of meanness, and everybody was glad Mr. Hussey had shuffled off to Maple Rest long before the old she-devil really exploited her fullest potentialities for causing misery on earth.

A few days ago the President of the United States made a speech in front of a library at Dartmouth College. He said a lot of sense and closed with some timely remarks about book-burning. He was, after all, in front of a library.

These were pounced upon and twisted out of shape by the professional Mrs. Husseys' present remarks and thereafter distributed far and wide for the mischief they might do in the tension between the beleaguered liberals and the hustling little minority of thought-controllers who are much with us these days.

That wasn't his purpose at all as a five-minute examination of his speech would have revealed.

Someone owes an apology to the President of the United States.

When they've made it, they should clean up their consciences, if they have any, by apologizing to Sen. Taft of Ohio for a misrepresentation job they did recently on a speech he wrote and had his son read for him in Cincinnati.

By the time the Mrs. Husseys of the news-distributing profession had pounced on one small piece of that and twisted it around in an attempt to bring bad blood between Taft and Eisenhower, they had put to shame every neighborhood gossip who ever saw the doctor going into the house around the corner and started the rumor that somebody's unmarried daughter who had been gadding about had a baby last night etc.

Some of us in the offshoots of the news-gathering business are tired of associates who make a habit of pouncing on fragments of speeches, twisting them out of context and starting them on their way for the sake of the damage they will do to the general welfare.

There's enough unavoidable trouble without resorting to the tactics of Mrs. Hussey.

Eisenhower Dehorns TVA Sacred Cow

By Raymond Moley

President Eisenhower shows real political courage in regarding TVA as something that is subject to criticism as well as praise.

His characterization, "creeping socialism," is exact. And he said more that makes excellent sense.

The TVA, he said, is a "monopoly" which the federal government has "seized," and now the TVA people want more money to bring more industries there.

This, he explained, means in simple terms the socialistic theory that all of us — the people of the United States — should pay a subsidy through taxes to take industries from New England and elsewhere to enrich and provide jobs in a selected section of the country.

He is not, he added, out to destroy TVA as an "experiment."

He might have added that the "infant experiment" has outgrown its bobby-sox now and is a vast, subsidized monopoly.

At long last a President has had the courage to submit this sacred cow to realistic evaluation. It has been the subject of panegyrics for years.

New Deal semantics lavished its choicest frosting upon it. It has been called "democracy in action," "an experiment in regionalism," and other sweet-sounding terms.

It is the complete antithesis of democracy. It is state paternalism in which all the people support some of the people.

It is not regionalism. It is federalism.

Over and over, it has been extolled by the academic pundits, and many Ph.D.'s and M.A.'s have been earned by writing theses about it.

School children, up to and including college age, have been taken on Easter holiday pilgrimages there, accompanied by socialistic professors who know nothing of the engineering or bookkeeping problems involved.

There, in calf-eyed wonder, these well-indoctrinated children have looked upon the works of FDR with the same reverence that they evince on the way home at Mount Vernon or Monticello.

Much more sinister have been the vicious attacks upon journalists and others who have ventured to tell the whole truth about TVA.

Only a few hardy souls like John T. Flynn have ventured to criticize this New Deal shrine. The letters that no doubt come from government-inspired sources to a critic beggar description.

If we write a word of commendation of private vs. public power, anywhere, we are "paid prostitutes of the power trust." Legal action against such irresponsible sources is impossible.

Our editors are deluged with long letters from public officials, written at public expense, questioning our facts, our motives, our integrity.

And the flame of mob psychology is fanned by such mouthings as those of Wayne Morse in denouncing Secretary McKay for his action on the proposed federal dam in Hell's Canyon.

The President has cleared the air. Now let's all of us judge these electric-power problems on their merits and without fear.

Call of the North

By THOMAS R. HENRY

This will be a busy summer in the Far North.

Thirty-one Arctic and sub-Arctic expeditions, sponsored jointly by the Arctic Institute of North America and the Office of Naval Research, will be in the field.

The objectives range from exploration of the almost unknown mountains of Baffinland to collections of 50,000,000-year-old mosses and search for stone artifacts of long-vanished peoples. The investigators will cover the country from little Diomede Island in the west to Greenland.

Five expeditions are concerned with archaeology and ethnology, due to recent findings which have upset long-standing assumptions regarding the first coming of man to this continent out of Asia.

Under the direction of Dr. Frederica de Laguna, professor of anthropology at Bryn Mawr College, excavations will be made at the site of a prehistoric village on Knight Island, near Yakatuk, Alaska.

The purpose is to trace the history of distinct aboriginal culture patterns which spread all over the American Arctic.

Dr. William Quaide of the University of California will carry out geological investigations to date prehistoric land connections between Alaska and Asia over which the earliest migrants between the two continents are supposed to have come.

Two projects in widely separated fields are related to problems of Arctic engineering and agriculture. Dr. Lyman J. Chapman of the Ontario Research Foundation will install a battery of evapo-transpirometers at Norman Wells, Northwest Territories, in an effort to determine the moisture cycle in northern latitudes and its influence on ground conditions.

Dr. and Mrs. William C. Steere o. Stanford University will investigate the geographical distribution of certain mosses whose presence serves as a reliable index of the character of the underlying layer of permafrost. Some of these mosses have persisted, Dr. Steere believes, since the tertiary geological period, when the climate of the north polar region was much milder than today. Most of the perhaps luxurious vegetation of the period became extinct or retreated southward with the climatic change.

Still another study will take Karen Friedman, economist of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, to study the current transition of Greenland's economy, which has resulted from the gradual warming of the coastal waters, and the consequent disappearance of the seal population that formerly supported the people of West Greenland. Mrs. Friedman believes that recent developments in Greenland afford an unusual example of the economic advancement of an underdeveloped area.

The research parties range in size from single investigators to the 13-man team headed by Col. P. D. Bair, director of the Arctic Institute's Montreal office, which will conduct glaciological, geological and biological investigations of the Penny Highland Ice Cap on Baffin Island. This party already is in the field.

More scientists plan to remain in the field until the start of the Arctic winter in mid-September. They will travel by canoe, eskimo boat, dogsled, local airplanes, and on foot.

One British scientist, a Dane and a Norwegian, in addition to U. S. and Canadian scientists, share the Institute's grants. The summer's work will raise to a total of 140 the expeditions and research projects sponsored by the Arctic Institute in the last five years. It is a joint U. S.-Cnaadian organization of Arctic experts with headquarters in Washington and Montreal.

Queen to Review RAF

By HARRY C. DRAKE

LONDON

More than 600 Royal Air Force planes, flying in successive waves to make up a huge mass formation, will fly past the queen during her review of the RAF at Odiham, Hampshire, on July 15.

Coming hundreds of miles from bases all over the country, split-second timing is demanded as they approach Odiham, since the faster planes behind will be steadily closing in on those in front.

The first wave will be the elementary trainers, passing at less than 100 mph, but the last wave of jet bombers and fighters will scream past at more than 600 mph.

The mass formation of this RAF equivalent of the Spithead Naval Review will begin to take shape over Hertfordshire and then swing on to course for Odiham. After passing the saluting base, the formation will continue to Lasham, Hampshire, and then begin to disperse for the subformations to return to their bases.

Unlike the RAF displays, the Review will include no acrobatics or demonstration flying.

Coming from more than 40 bases in all parts of Britain and Northern Ireland, the great formation will take half an hour to pass the queen at the saluting base. Earlier, the queen will inspect more than 300 other planes with their crews and maintenance personnel flown in previously and drawn up on the airfield in parade order.

For an hour the queen will drive along the lines of aircraft and ground equipment, including vehicles representative of every branch of the service.

About 25,000 members of the public, who will have to obtain tickets in advance, will be admitted to Odiham Airfield. Only the first 10,000 to arrive are likely to obtain any good view of the ground parades.

The remainder, together with tousands on the route, will have an excellent view of the fly-past formation.

TV Spreads

NEW YORK (AP) — Statistics gathered by the United Nations indicates that 54 countries and territories are developing television activities. Regular service has been introduced in 13, experimental telecasts are under way in 11 and preparation or study of TV is going on in the 30 others. Regular service now is available in the United States, Great Britain, France, Russia, Cuba, Mexico, Brazil, Guatemala, Dominican Republic, Argentina, Republic of Germany, Canada and Japan. The greatest development has come about in the United States, with Great Britain holding the honor of being first to start regular service, beginning in November, 1936.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

"Model TV"

The recent two-hour TV show to mark the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Ford Company was epochal in more ways than one, and still has America pretty excited. At first it had us pretty confused.

We had no idea it was to be the most revolutionary TV program in history, a program sponsored by a big-business corporation without a single interruption for a commercial!

Unaccustomed to TV without a sales pitch, we had settled in the usual groove for one, and for a time we got the idea that the story presented was this:

Henry Ford, born of poor parents upstairs over the Variety office, moved to Detroit with a troupe of song writers and began his business career in a little bicycle shop run by Ethel Merman on Lake Michigan just off 42nd Street near Lindy's Restaurant.

He got the idea of a horseless carriage from Oscar Hammerstein and developed it by working nights in the old Winter Garden with Mary Martin, who was in those days known as the 999, and steered with a tiller. Hammerstein, at that time, wrote by horse and buggy.

We gathered that, before fooling around with the horseless carriage, Henry worked in some sort of a dancing carnival with Wally Cox, who was at that time in "Birth of a Nation" with Theda Bara and Lowell Thomas.

Henry developed a good car by the light of a kerosene lamp held by Eddie Fisher, who was one of the Fisher Brothers, and his first backers were Kukla, Fran & Ollie, who later interested Leland Hayward.

At that time Hayward operated on one cylinder and had prestolite tanks. They withdrew on account of "Alexander's Ragtime Band," and Henry was about to abandon his car and join the Shuberts when a millionaire named Sinatra came to the rescue, putting in a lot of money and four songs.

Henry soon put his first car on the streets of Detroit and called it the "Model Vallee," after a man named Bing Crosby, who used to be known as Valentino.

Henry said he would produce a car to be sold to the masses for $500. "My car will be so successful," Henry said, "that some day I can afford to hire Ethel Merman and Mary Martin on the same program and not pass the dividend.

Not only that but I shall build an empire with so much money it can make 'I Love Lucy' give up the Monday night hour."

Just about that time the program began to jell and get pretty wonderful. Suddenly we realized that Ford was not giving us any story of the Ford Company, making a sales pitch or insulting the intelligence of TV audiences by the usual business routines.

It was Kukla and the dragon who gave us the tipoff. "Video has not grown up," said Ollie. "Maybe it will tonight," said the dragon. And by golly it DID!

No commercials, no plugs, no jingles, no interruptions every few minutes to urge us to drop everything and buy a Ford NOW.

It was just about the best show we had ever seen on TV, despite the two-hour stretch. It flabbergasted us. And it must have flabbergasted all the moneyed sponsors of TV entertainment.

All these years they have been proceeding under the impression the audience had to be conked over the head and slugged from behind with annoying, boresome and wholly inane sales talks. Well whaddya know!!!

Postmaster-General Summerfield plans to raise postal rates, upping the three-center to four. The business of making correspondence expensive proceeds merrily along and it may yet be necessary to see a financing company before writing a letter. Everything in life has gone up, but it will seem extra tough to pay more money than ever to get off a love note when the cost of taking her to a dance and proposing in a taxi have pretty well ruined you financially.

MRS. JACK SHOAF

Miss Howald Is Wed at Waldo To Jack R. Shoaf

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Anna Mae Howald and Jack R. Shoaf, which took place Saturday evening, May 23.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Howald of Norton and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gail Shoaf of Waldo.

Only the immediate families were present for the double ring service read at 8:30 o'clock in the home of the bridegroom's parents, with the Rev. Robert Fiether, pastor of the Waldo Methodist Church officiating.

To repeat their vows the couple stood before an improvised altar of white carnations, greenery and lighted tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina-length gown of white organdy and lace with a halo of carnations in her hair. Her corsage of white carnations was carried on a white Bible.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Larcom of Waldo were the attendants and lighting the candles was Nancy Howald and Joyce Shoaf, sisters of the bride and bridegroom.

Both Mr. Shoaf and his bride are graduates of the Waldo High School with the class of 1952. Mrs. Shoaf is employed with the Brown Construction Co. and Mr. Shoaf with the B. F. Goodrich Co. They are making their home at 136 N. Vine St. in Marion.

2 Chicago Elevated Trains Collide, 25 Hurt

CHICAGO (AP)—Two elevated railway trains collided at a north side station today and at least 25 persons were hurt.

One train, bringing passengers southward from suburban Evanston to downtown Chicago, rammed a standing southbound train at the Sheridan Rd. station.

Parents Announce Engagement Of Miss Rutherford

Announcement of the engagement and forthcoming marriage of a former Marion resident, Miss Nancy Kay Rutherford, is being made by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Rutherford of Pittsburgh. Miss Rutherford's fiance is David Alton Whitacre of East Cleveland, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Whitacre of East Cleveland..

The couple have chosen Saturday, Aug. 8 as the date for their wedding.

Miss Rutherford has just completed her sophomore year at the Ohio State University where she is a member of Chi Omega Social Sorority.

Mr. Whitaker was graduated on June 7 from Ohio State University where he received a bachelor of fine arts degree and at the same time was commissioned a second lieutenant in the U. S. Army. He is a member of Phi Delta Theta Fraternity.

Rosenbergs

America is living under the heel of a military dictator garbed in civilian attire. These people . . . have the souls of murderers."

Bloch was attorney for the Rosenbergs at the trial in which they were convicted of conspiring to pass U. S. atomic secrets to Soviet Russia. For more than two years he led the court fight to have their death sentence set aside.

A precession of more than 300 automobiles followed the hearses to Wellwood Cemetery on Long Island 35 miles from New York. At the graveside the Rev. Glendin Partridge, a Presbyterian minister from Montreal, Canada, delivered the final eulogy.

He praised the "true strength of these people who would not put anything—even life itself — above the best they believed in."

"They died in the name of humanity, truth and justice," he said.

Mrs. Sophie Rosenberg, 71-year-old mother of Julius, a black shawl tied around her head and under her chin, wailed in Yiddish:

"God help me. To lose to children—to take a mother and father away from two children. Look at those two boxes holding my children.

"God, God, why did you do this?"

She tried to throw herself across the caskets as they were to be lowered into the grave side by side. Held back, she fainted.

The Rosenbergs' two sons, Michael, 10, and Robert, 6, remained in seclusion in New Jersey.

Besides his mother, Julius Rosenberg's two sisters and a brother were among the mourners. Members of the committee that arranged the funeral said they did not know whether members of Ethel Rosenberg's family attended.

One of the witnesses against the Rosenbergs at their trial was her brother, David Greenglass.

The Rosenbergs' bodies were brought from Sing Sing to Brooklyn Saturday afternoon. They were placed on view and throughout that night and Sunday until 1 p.m. the mourning and curious filed past.

Four men, holding American flags stood by the flower-banked biers.

The bodies were clothed in white muslin shrouds. The husband also wore a prayer shawl and cap. A piece of white lace covered Mrs. Rosenberg's hair.

At times the line of those waiting to get into the chapel stretched four and five abreast for four blocks. The funeral committee estimated 10,000 trooped past the bodies before the funeral.

Nearly 200 policemen were on duty to keep order and prevent disturbances.

Occasionally spectators heckled those in line.

Nurse Suspended For Sleeping on Duty

Marion Girl Wins Post In Girls State

A Marion girl has been elected mayor of one of the two mythical towns in the 1953 Buckeye Girls State at Columbus.

Miss Mary Ellen Krigbaum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Krigbaum of 706 Mt. Vernon Ave., was selected by the girls there as mayor of "Cage City" in "Deweese County." Dorothy Pavkov of Akron is mayor of "Cary City."

Mary Ellen, 17, attends St. Mary High School. She was sponsored by the auxiliary of Bird-McGinnis Post 162 here, which also sponsored Miss Sara Meister of Harding High School, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Meister of 601 S. Forest St. A third girl from Marion attending Girls State is Carol Bachman of Harding High School, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Paul Bachman of 607 King Ave., sponsored by the Auxiliary of GI Post.

The mayors of the two mythical counties were elected Sunday after Girls State opened Saturday. The governor will be elected today and then the 500 citizens of Girls State will attempt to run their mock political structure without a crisis for the next seven days. The experiment is sponsored annually by the American Legion auxiliary of Ohio and is for high school juniors.

Radnor Nurse And Chicago Physician Set Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Meredith of near Delaware are announcing the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Frances Zeigler, to Dr. Robert Dammers of Chicago.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Radnor High School and Presbyterian Hospital School of Nursing in Chicago and for the past two years has been on the hospital's staff. Her fiance is the son of Mrs. Emily E. Dammers of Oak Park, Ill. and the late John William Dammers. He is a graduate the University of Illinois Medical School where he now holds an associate professorship in pediatrics. He is medical director of the Infant Welfare Society of Chicago and on the staff of the Cook County and Presbyterian Hospitals in that city.

The wedding will take place in the Radnor Baptist Church in the early fall.

Army Revises World War II Casualty Total

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army's new and final account of its World War II battle casualties totals 936,259 Army and Air Corps personnel, including 234,874 deaths.

Also including were 592,170 wounded in action, of whom 383,196 recovered and returned to duty without leaving the theater of action.

The missing in action total was 30,314, but 24,098 returned to duty. Never seen again and declared dead were 6,058.

These final totals made public over the week end after a three-year check, are 12,000 lower than estimated in 1946 but number 5,000 more dead than the original account.

The Navy has reported 100,392 casualties, including 36,950 battle deaths, and the Marines 88,718 casualties, of whom 19,733 died.

Canary birds were named for the Canary Islands.

Appoint Galion Health Nurse

Special to The Star

GALION — The appointment of Mrs. Margaret Garrett as Galion's first public health nurse was announced by Dr. Mart L. Helfrich, city health commissioner. The appointment is effective July 6.

The position of a public health nurse was established following a proposal by the Galion Trouble Clinic. The clinic had investigated the need for such a service, and recommended it as a city project.

The health nurse will have offices on the second floor of the city building. She is a graduate of White Cross School of Nursing, and served as a nurse and supervisor at University Hospital in Columbus. She also served as a public health nurse in Toledo for Lucas County Health Department for two years before coming to Galion City Hospital in 1944 as nurse and supervisor.

Ike's "Battle Plan"

By Victor Riesel

Dwight D. Eisenhower has no more intention of being a president without a Republican Congress than he would be a general without an army. He has been told that there is great danger that his party will lose control of the House, and possibly the Senate, in next year's elections.

RIESEL

Therefore, the general has reverted to his standard operating procedure, which you might describe as the antithesis of an earlier general who put his money on getting there "fustest with the mostest". President Eisenhower plans to get there with the "mostest", but he'll bide his time.

Right now his White House general staff has developed one political battle plan for him. They've suggested the revival of the "Citizens' Commitee" apparatus which helped him finance and win the nomination and the election last year.

-:-

IT WAS just about 12 months ago that the drums were being beaten the loudest by the "Citizens For Eisenhower."

Their clubs of independents, with a million dollars to work with, were about to put him over despite the oppostion of some powerful GOP regulars.

After the nomination, these clubs cut Dick Nixon into the title—and dashed off after the independent vote.

Guided by a central staff under Walter Williams and Mary Lord, they worked with the ferver of martyrs in many a lion's den during the days when the smart money swung suddenly to one Adlai Stevenson.

Not the least of their chores was to go after the Democratic vote—and there are political sages in Washington who say that the "Citizens" army won Tennessee and Texas for the general.

Now the battle plans call for reactivating these "Citizen" clubs, not as a national organization but in the congressional precincts which the political specialists are quietly telling the White House can't be held in '54 without extraordinary help.

-:-

THERE STILL are in every metropolitan area of any size, and in every state, the nuclei of such groups which are not in the GOP but are ready to do battle for the Republicans to give strength to Eisenhower.

These clubs are intended to offset the Democratic - Labor coalition machine which has been in action for months preparing to wob the independent vote.

In effect, these clubs will compete with the labor's political leagues and political action committees.

It should be reported here that Gen. Eisenhower has not yet approved this battle plan, which most likely will be blended with others to offset the powerful labor drive against the Republicans.

No one in the White House is underestimating the appeal the Democratic-Labor combine will have.

-:-

TRUCE TALKS have injected depression jitters into many an industrial community. Just how many no one can tell.

The areas where labor is blaming the GOP for a possible recession are substantial. Only last Friday, for example, staff members of the AFL Labor League for Political Education told labor editors in Washington that there will be 90 congressional contests next year which can be won by a handful of votes — and the labor strategists expect to take a majority of them from the Republicans.

The union men believe the Senate races will be tougher because labor will have to spread itself too thin to fight across the nation. But there will be money for a terrific political war.

The AFL is collecting a dollar a man from its millions. Many a CIO union is putting a dime a man a month into a political kitty.

LABOR PEOPLE see this as their opportunity to box in Eisenhower, keep him caged legislatively, and then in 1956 point to a faltering GOP record as they again support Stevenson against the general.

All of which explains why the White House is so cool now, even to the AFL.

But exactly one day after the inauguration word came from California that an AFL political group was distributing signs asking: "Had enough?" Then the AFL began collecting hundreds of thousands of dollars to campaign against all Republicans.

That's why Eisenhower decided on a hands off policy on all strikes.

That's why Durkin is isolated from White House strategy talks and has not been permitted to name three assistant secretaries.

That's why there still is no chief of mediation and no chairman of the National Labor Relations Board.

When these jobs, and thousands of others, are handed out, they'll go to those in the "Citizens" army which the general hopes to raise this coming year.

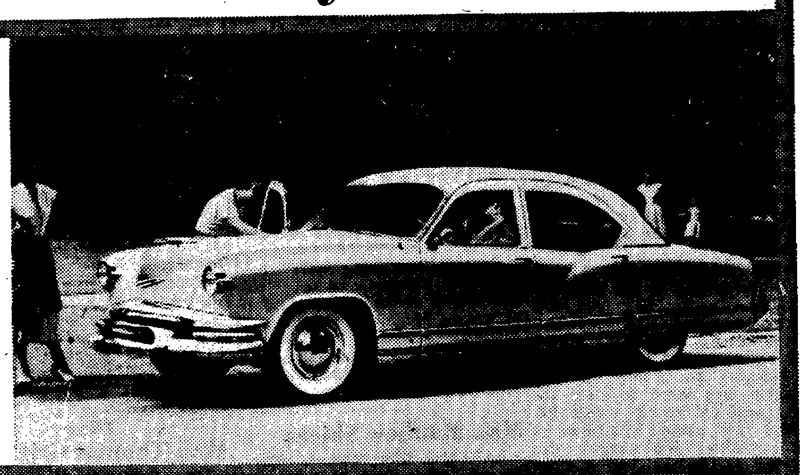
"Just bought my 4th Kaiser"

"My fourth Kaiser is the best yet," says E. U. Sherman, Kansas City. "I bought my first Kaiser in 1947, liked it so well I've bought three more. I find the Kaiser best suited to me."



With 730,000 cars on the road, Kaiser's repeat ownership tops all previous records —and Kaiser's new $62 million expansion program assures these owners of a great future!

Kaiser has an outstanding record of repeat owners. Here's why:

Styling—The Kaiser has won more international beauty awards than any other American automobile. Trim and low with unlimited visibility through the greatest glass area of any standard sedan.

Performance—With no unnecessary dead weight to pull, every ounce of power goes into efficient performance. Lowest center of gravity of any standard American sedan, plus Kaiser's suspension, lets you take curves faster and stay snug to the road.

Safety—When you drive a Kaiser with its safety-padded instrument panel, 'push-out' windshield and narrow corner posts . . . you'll never feel as secure in any other car!

Local Guard Company Will Train in July

Will Join Other Marion Area Units At Camp Grayling

The local National Guard unit, Co. "C" of the 166th Infantry, will join with other Guard units in the 166th for the annual field training at Camp Grayling, Mich., July 5-19.

At midnight July 5, members of the local unit will leave by Greyhound bus from Marion for Camp Grayling. An advanced work detail and pre-mess group will leave Wednesday, July 1. It will consist of three drivers, who will take two quarter-ton jeeps and a two and one-half ton truck with organizational equipment, and three kitchen personnel.

Six thousand guardsmen will undergo the two-week training trips required by the national defense act. The first encampment for Ohio guardsmen at Camp Grayling will be followed by one July 12-26 at Camp Perry and another July 25-Aug. 8 for the Ohio Air National Guard at McNamara Air Base, Grayling.

Also at Camp Grayling with Co. "C" will be units from Marysville, Delaware and Bucyrus and the 3584th Transportation Co. from Galion. The first week at Grayling will be devoted to instruction on basic topics and weapons. Platoon and company tactics under battalion control will be taken up in the second week. A bivouac of five days and five nights dealing with assault problems and defensive tactics in the field will be held.

The local unit, which consists of 50 enlisted men and four officers, will make a stop the morning of July 5 at Michigan State University, East Lansing, Mich., for breakfast in the university cafeteria. All units on the motor movement will mess there. The local unit is scheduled to arrive at Grayling on Sunday noon.

Commanding officer of the local Guard unit is Capt. Robert H. Canterbury of Columbus. Other officers are Lt. Richard E. Bigford of Caledonia, Lt. James Melby of Marion and Lt. Donald Van Loon of Sunbury. Col. Loren G. Windom of Columbus is regimental commander of the 166th Combat Team which includes units in central an dsouthern Ohio.

Forty-eight drills and three inactive duty drills on week ends each year prepares the local unit for its annual trip.

Numerous key positions are still open in the local Guard unit and men may join and still go to Camp Grayling, Guard officials say. Anyone interested in joining the Guard may get further information at the Marion Armory, 434 W. Church St. Drills are held every Tuesday night and Guardsmen draw regular Army pay.

CROP Parade Signals Start Of Campaign

A crowd estimated at 2,000 watched the first CROP parade in Marion Saturday afternoon. The parade signaled the start of the 1953 CROP campaign. It began in front of the Farm Bureau Cooperative Association on Park Blvd. and moved east on Center St. to Main St. and south to Columbia St., where it disbanded.

Barrels were set up along the route of the parade to receive contributions. Solicitations were to begin today and continue for the rest of the week.

George Schertzer, co-chairman of the committee, blamed hot weather for the small turnout.

The parade consisted of the Claridon High School Band, three floats, and one group of marchers. The floats carried students from the Bible schools in the area. The children marching were dressed in tattered clothing to represent the destitution found in needy countries.

CROP is the Christian Rural Overseas Program. Its aims are to provide relief for the needy in Western Europe, Palestine, India, Pakistan, and Korea.

Cash donations are being sought in the campaign. In addition, farmers are being asked to contribute one-half bushel of wheat per acre. Appeals were made from the various churches in the county yesterday.

Man Arrested On Hitch-Hiking Charge

William Lafever, 53, of Mt. Vernon, O., was arrested by state highway patrolmen from the Marion post at 8:45 p.m. Saturday on Route U. S. 30-S on a charge of hitch-hiking after the patrol received several complaints from passing motorists about the "would - be" passenger. Lafever was fined $15 and costs on the charge by Justice of the Peace R. R. Bennington at Mt. Gilead.

Although lawmen seldom arrest hitch-hikers, patrolmen said, arrest is made when the hitch-hiking annoys the motoring public.

Iberia Girl Injured By Runaway Car

Special to The Star

IBERIA—A 12-year-old girl was seriously injured when run over by a run-away car Saturday. After the accident the car was stopped by a Marion youth a few feet from a creek bank.

Eleanor Miller, a fifth grader at Iberia School, is reported in serious condition in Galion City Hospital where she was taken by a neighbor, Sam McClarren. She suffered two broken ribs, a fractured collarbone, and three cuts on her head, back and knee.

She had moved the car out of the way of a load of baled hay which was being brought in to the barn on her parents' farm and had placed a stone in front of the front wheel. The car was on an incline and the stone didn't hold, witnesses said.

She slipped and fell in trying to hold the car from going down the incline. The car rolled over her chest and was going down the incline when Bill Parks, 15, of Marion ran and jumped in the car. The car careened through a board fence and Parks stopped the car a few feet from the bank of Thorne Run Creek. The car rolled some 100 yards.

The accident occurred at the farm home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Miller, one mile south of Iberia.

A sister, Delores Miller, 18-months-old, who had just recovered from the effects of swallowing insecticide poison about a week ago, was a passenger in the car but was not injured.

Man Overcome By Gas Fumes Aided By Inhalator Squad

Three calls Saturday were reported today by the Marion fire department.

The inhalator squad was summoned to Tecumseh Products Co., Marion Division, at 333 Joseph St., where it operated successfully four minutes on Harold Wood, 55, of near Richwood. Firemen said Wood, an employee at Tecumseh Products, was overcome by gas while working there. He was taken to Marion City Hospital by Axe and Son ambulance and was released from the hospital Sunday morning. The inhalator squad was called at 3:12 p.m.

Wood, a welder, was reportedly repairing a leak in the gas system and was overcome by trichlorocethylene. After aided by the inhalator squad, he was placed in an oxygen tent at the hospital for several hours.

Firemen from Mark St. station were called at 3:57 p.m. to the rear of the Lumberman's Supply Inc., on Quarry St., to extinguish a grass fire. Firemen said some grass was being burned and the fire spread out to the Erie Railroad tracks. There was no damage.

A short circuit in a television set resulted in fire which burned out the set at the residence of Albert Turner, 560 Olney Ave. There was an estimated $100 damage. Firemen from Central station were summoned at 9:22 p.m.

FALL FROM TREE FATAL

CINCINNATI (AP) — Six-year-old Charles Scranton of Blue Ash died at Good Samaritan Hospital Sunday of a skull fracture received when he fell from a tree to the sidewalk while playing near his home Saturday.

Woman Hurt In One of Nine City Accidents

Cut and Bruised When Auto Skids, Collides With Tree

Miss Virginia A. Wick of near Marion was injured at 11:15 p. m. Sunday in a one-car accident on White Oaks Rd. near the Sawyer Sanitarium. It was one of nine week-end accidents reported by police. The right front wheel of the car Miss Wick was driving went off the road and the right side of the car collided with a tree, she told police. Going out of control, the car then skidded some 60 feet diagonally across the road and came to rest against a telephone pole.

The right front end and the right side of the car were badly damaged and Miss Wick received cuts and bruises to both legs, a bruised right arm and suffered mild shock. She is reported in "fairly good" condition at the hospital today.

Walker, 28, of 224 S. State St. Glass was backing into a parking space and Walker was traveling east on W. Center St., police said. The right front fender and headlight on Walker's car were also damaged.

Strike Ties Up Honolulu Waterfront

HONOLULU (AP)—A work stoppage protesting the conviction of labor leader Jack W. Hall as a Communist conspirator disrupted operations at Hawaii's vital Army port today and threatened all waterfront, sugar and pineapple plantation activity.

A spokesman for the port, which handles cargo for Korea, said civilian stevedores of Hall's International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union (ILWU) did not report for work over the week end.

Three ships which docked Friday were worked by military personnel.

Hall and six co-defedants, one a woman, were convicted Friday of conspiring to teach and advocate forcible overthrow of the government.

Unofficial reports said 11,000 workers were off their jobs over the week end and the stoppage would continue until Tuesday.

A union spokesman called the work stoppages a spontaneous reaction of workers to the trial verdict.

Two thousand stevedores began quitting work within an hour after the verdict was announced, and shipping was tied up by nightfall Friday.

Work also stopped on several sugar planations and pineapple workers were expected to follow suit.

All three groups are among 26,000 members of the ILWU in Hawaii. Harry Bridges is president of the union.

Reverberations were felt also in waterfront wage negotiations.

One union official said the conviction "will cost the employers money."

Shortly after the verdict, Hall suspended wage talks and the union announced pay increase demands were being upped from 11 to 22 cents an hour. The base pay is $1.94 an hour.

Win Eagles Contest

"Buckeye Four" Quartet Again State Champions

The Buckeye Four, quartet of the Marion Eagles Lodge again won first place in state competition Saturday at closing sessions of the Eagles state convention in Columbus. The quartet has been state and national quartet champions for the last two years.

Other lodges with quartets competing were Steubenville, placing second, Zanesville, third, and Sidney, fourth. The Sidney group was the runner-up in the national Grange quartet competition last year.

The convention convened on Wednesday and was held in the Deshler-Wallick Hotel.

By winning the state event, the Buckeye Four is eligible for the national contest to be held in August in Indianapolis, Ind. Members of the quartet are Huber Hoch, first tenor, William Cowles, lead tenor, Robert Heimlich, bass, Arthur Ward, baritone. They sang "The Way You Roll Your Eyes" and "Coney Island Baby," plus an encore, "Dry Bones."

The convention marked the golden anniversary of the state aerie. Ten delegates from Marion along with a number of visitors were present for various sessions. Five from Marion were initiated with a class of candidates.

Paul Hoffman of Tiffin was named new state president, and Arthur Reese of Delaware is the new state inside guard.

B. F. Goodrich Co. Announces Organization

Two Divisions Integrate Sales And Manufacturing

AKRON—Organization of two major divisions of the B. F. Goodrich Co., integrating sales, manufacturing and necessary staff functions, was announced by John Collyer, president. Arthur Kelly, a vice president of the company, has been named president of the B. F. Goodrich Company Tire and Equipment Division. Clyde Delong has been named president of the new Industrial Products Division. Delong formerly was general sales manager of the division.

Named by Kelly as vice presidents of the new Tire and Equipment Division are Joseph A. Hoban, former general manager of tire merchandising, vice president in charge of replacement sales; E. F. Tomlinson, former general manager of the automotive, aviation and government sales, vice president in charge of equipment sales, and J. E. Gulick, former general manager of tire manufacturing, vice president in charge of manufacturing.

As vice presidents of the new industrial products division, Delong named Robert V. Yohe, former president of American Anode, who becomes vice president in charge of sales and Rollin D. Hager, former general superintendent of the company's industrial products manufacturing in Akron, who becomes vice president in charge of manufacturing.

Yohe joined B. F. Goodrich in 1931 as a research chemist and was made manager of the company's general chemical laboratories in 1936. In 1939, he became technical superintendent of the company's Sundries Sponge Rubber and Latex Products division. He was assistant director of his company's man-made rubber research program in 1942 and technical superintendent of the B. F. Goodrich chemical division until assuming the managership of a synthetic rubber plant in Louisville, Ky., built for the government by B. F. Goodrich during World War II. He was made president of American Anode in 1946. He is a graduate of Drake University and the University of Minnesota where he received his AB and Ph.D. degrees.

Hager, with B. F. Goodrich since 1925, was made production superintendent of the company's Cadillac, Mich., plant in 1937. He was production superintendent, assistant general manager and later manager of the Lone Star Ordnance Plant, at Texarkana, Tex., a large bomb and shell loading facility built and operated for the government by B. F. Goodrich during World War II. In 1943, he became production superintendent of the company's industrial products manufacturing in Akron and general superintendent in 1945. He was named general manager of all industrial products manufacturing in October, 1952. He is an alumnus of Penn State University.

President Collyer said "the continuing diversification and growth of the company's business, both presently and in the future, indicate the announced form of decentralized responsibility for operation to be in the best interests of the company, its customers, employees and stockholders."

Red Chinese POWs Bolt Prison Camp

PUSAN, Korea (AP) — About 100 Chinese prisoners of war broke from a U. N. prison camp Sunday but were recaptured quickly, as anti-Red Chinese POWs clamored to join more than 27,000 freed North Korean POW's.

Special Allied investigators meanwhile surveyed the turmoil caused by release or escape of the North Korean prisoners, which now perils a Korean truce.

Seek to Organize Neighborhood Playground Group

Residents of the northeast section of the city have been asked to attend a special meeting tonight at 6 p.m. at the playground at Patton and Patterson Sts.

The meeting has been called by Wade Conkle, chairman of the committee in charge of the playground at that location. Purpose of the meeting is to find whether or not residents of the area wish to take over the operation of the playground or allow it to cease operations.

Conkle said more than $300 is on hand for use at the neighborhood playground. The fund was started two years ago when Roosevelt Lodge No. 1281 of the American Federation of Labor decided to sponsor the project. A $200 donation was voted to start the playground on the city owned lot. Conkle was named chairman of the committee and worked with Charles D. Curren and George Jonsson of the lodge. Conkle then collected over $150 from residents of the area.

The lot was scraped and leveled by graders furnished by the Huber Manufacturing Co.

Conkle said the meeting tonight was for the purpose of setting up a permanent playground committee and turning the money on hand over to it. The committee will be in complete charge of the playground and the money will be made available to it.

Rev. Kirby Celebrates First Mass

The Rev. James W. Kirby, S. J., celebrated his first solemn High Mass at 10:30 Sunday morning at St. Mary Church. The Rev. Fr. Kirby, son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Kirby of 322 Silver St., was ordained June 17 by the Very Rev. Paul C. Schulte, D. D., Archbishop of Indianapolis. The ordination was at West Baden College, West Baden, Ind.

The Mass was followed by Benediction at 4 in the afternoon. A reception in his honor was held later.

Assistant priest at the Mass was the Very Rev. William J. Spickerman, V. F., pastor of St. Mary. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Edward H. Summe, pastor of Sacred Heart Church in McCartyville, and a former assistant here.

The Rev. Fr. Kirby was graduated from St. Mary High School in 1936. He entered the Jesuit Novitiate at Milford in 1940. There he studied languages, history, and science. After the completion of his training at Milford, he was sent to West Baden College where he took a three-year course in Philosophy.

He taught physics, mathematics, and speech for three years at St. Ignatius High School in Chicago before returning to West Baden in 1950 to take Theology. At the same time that he was taking Theology, he was also a part time student at John Carroll University in Cleveland.

He is now vacationing in Michigan. When he returns, he will go back to West Baden College for another year of studies before resuming teaching.

Plaintiff Wins Damages Of One Penny

In a replevin action brought against the Baker Aviation Corp. of Marion by the Fledgeling Flyers Club, Inc., of East St. Louis, Ill., heard Friday in Marion County Common Pleas Court, the jury found the Illinois club "had the right of possession" of an airplane in question and assessed damages against the Marion corporation in the amount of one cent.

At the same time, the jury awarded the Baker Aviation Corp. damages in the amount of $560 on its cross-petition.

The flying club maintained their airplane was illegally detained by the Baker Aviation Corp. in June, 1951 when the plane was moored at the airport operated by Baker east of Marion Municipal Airport and a windstorm damaged the club plane and a Baker - owned plane against which it was thrown.

The Baker Corp. claimed it held the Illinois plane as security until the club paid for the damage caused to its plane.

Judge Elmo M. Estill of Holmes County heard the case. Representing the Illinois club was the law firm of Mickley and Frericks, while counsel for the Marion corporation was the firm of Moore and Myers.

Marion Man's Car Damaged In Accident

Other Driver, Who Failed to Stop, Faces Hit-Skip Charge

Charges of failure to stop at the scene of an accident are to be filed against a driver whose car sideswiped one driven by Freeman Smith, 43, of Oak Grove Ave., Marion, Sunday at 11 a.m. on State Route 4, two miles south of Chatfield, according to local state highway patrolmen.

Both the Smith car and the other vehicle, owned by a Columbus man, were headed north, when the latter car attempted to pass Smith. The driver failed to stop after his car sideswiped the Smith auto. Slight damage to the rear bumper of Smith's car and the front end of the other car was reported. Ownership of the Columbus car was traced by means of the car license to Harry C. Caene of Columbus.

Hugh A. Crouse, 25, of Tiro, pleaded not guilty in Mayor R. G. Eckstein's court in Tiro Sunday to a charge of failure to stop at the scene of an accident, after he was arrested by state highway patrolmen at 1:10 a.m. on State Route 39, just south of Tiro. He was bound over to the grand jury under $200 bond.

The left rear fender of the Crouse car caught the front end of a following car driven by John S. Neff, 36, of Tiro, as Crouse attempted to make a left turn onto County Road 17. Moderate damage to the front end of the Neff car and mnior to the left rear fender of Crouse's car was reported. Neff said Crouse failed to stop at the scene and filed the hit-skip charge.

A truck owned and driven by Cecil Curran, 47, of Mt. Vernon collided with an oncoming car driven by Dale Whiteman, 20, of 222 Silver St., Marion, at 6:10 p.m. Sunday on State Route 4, just north of the Route 203 intersection. Patrolmen said Curran had passed a farm tractor driven by John Dunbar, 22, of Prospect, which was also headed south, when it collided with the approaching Whiteman vehicle. Minor damage to the left front and rear fenders of the Curran truck and moderate damage to the left front fender, door and left rear fender of the Whiteman car was reported. No one was injured.

A car driven by Dallas Hayes, 39, of Bucyrus, drove off the right side of State Route 4, three miles south of Chatfield, at 2 a.m. Sunday, and tore down a highway marker sign. Damage was moderate to the front end of the car.

At 5:30 p.m. Saturday on Route 262, just north of U. S. 30-N, in Crawford County, a southbound car driven by Ellen M. Spiegel, 19, of Bucyrus, collided with an approaching car driven by Wiltod J. Cholobewitsch, 25, of Bucyrus, as she attempted to make a left turn into a private driveway. The Spiegel car hit the left rear side of the Cholobewitsch vehicle, causing minor damage.

Three Fined After Fight

Two men and a woman, involved in a cutting scrape on the west side Saturday afternoon, were fined a total of $200 and costs and one of the men was sentenced to three months in the Columbus Workhouse in Marion Municipal Court today.

Deforrest Raybon, 45, of 696 Hocking St., Robert Randle, 40, of 353 N. State St. and Clara Mae Fraley, of 473 Grant St. were arrested after police were called to investigate a cutting scrape in a room above the Shanty Town Restaurant on Kenton Ave. at 2:20 p.m. Saturday.

Police report Raybon whipped out a knife and cut Randle, police said. The cuts were minor.

Raybon was charged with cutting with intent to wound and pleaded guilty to the charge in court today. He was fined $100 and costs in addition to the three months' jail term.

Miss Fraley and Randle both pleaded guilty to disorderly conduct charges and each was fined $50 and costs.

Services Set for Head Of Gallaher Chain

Funeral services for J. Frank Gallaher, 68, founder and board chairman of the Gallaher Drug Co., who died Friday night at his home in Dayton, will be held in Dayton Tuesday afternoon. He was head of a chain of 52 drug stores in Ohio, Kentucky, and West Virginia.

The Gallaher Drug Store in Marion is located at 121 W. Center St. It was opened in December of 1946. Gallaher was present for the opening and had returned to Marion three or four times a year since then. His last visit here was in May, 1952.

The original Gallaher store in Marion was opened about thirty years ago. It had several different locations before opening in its present place.

Marion Area Employment Down Slightly

Increase of 200 Expected by July, OSES Office Reports

Fred B. Scherff, manager of the Ohio State Employment Service at 163 East Center St., today announced that employment in the Marion area in May dropped slightly below the March level. The 61 major firms surveyed in May reported a total of 13,650 at work. This represents a drop of 75 since the middle of April and a drop of 60 since March.

Electrical equipment manufacturers and primary metal firms were mainly responsible for the decline in employment. Nonelectrical machinery and transportation firms noted some gains in employment.

According to recent predictions of surveyed employers, approximately 200 workers will be hired by July. Electrical equipment firms expect to recall some of their workers previously laid off because of a lack of orders. Nonelectrical machinery plants plan to continue their expansion.

The twelve-month figures from May 1952 to May 1953 show an increase of about 1,400 in local employment. Nearly all manufacturing groups reported increases. A total of 13,650 are employed in the firms surveyed.

Students seeking summer work and recent high school graduates have increased the local labor market by 40 per cent since May 1.

The greatest demand is for men experienced in layout work, sheet-metal work, and the operation of machine - shop equipment. High school graduates who are able to read blueprints are also needed. Workers 18 and older are needed for track repair work. Women stenographers, typists and bookkeepers are wanted.

The weekly average of persons seeking employment compensation was 140 during May. In April, the weekly average was 160. Last year, the average for May was 260 persons per week.

Scherff expects a total of 13,865 to be employed in July in the establishments covered by his survey.

ACROSS THE COUNTER

Pathfinder Magazine carried interesting news to everyone who owns an automobile. According to a recent article many attorneys are advising their clients to carry auto liability limits of $50,000/$100,000 if they are earning between $5,000 and $25,000 a year. This is because jury verdicts lately have been quite high. For incomes of less than $5,000, the suggested limits are $25,000/$50,000.

Earl J. Andrews

This advice makes sense because you might become involved in a serious car accident nearly any day. The only safe rule is to have PLENTY of insurance "riding" with you at all times.

The extra cost of the limits Pathfinder mentions is relatively small. Probably the little difference will surprise you.

For the average car owner, 50/100 limits add only $7.20 to the cost of an automobile liability policy. And 25/50 limits come for just $5.60 extra per year.

Follow the trail blazed by Pathfinder! Visit our office for complete automobile insurance protection.

Reaction On Steel Hikes Reported Mild

CLEVELAND (AP)—Few steel consumers have complained about recent steel price increases, Steel the metalworking weekly, said today.

In noting little or no opposition to steel price hikes, the magazine said:

"The steel industry had prepared the public for the increases by stating frankly what was coming. Business as been good and overall demand for steel is strong, so there was little vocal opposition from consumers."

But some consumers are first beginning to question their ability to pass on additional costs, the weekly stated.

Most wary over the price increase situation are manufacturers of products in fields where stiff competition prevails, the magazine said.

Present steel prices reflect two separate developments in the metalworking industry.

The first price spurt took place a few weeks ago when producers adjusted price extras "to reflect changes that took place in production costs while prices were frozen under government controls," the weekly said. Prices moved up an average of 4.5 per cent, or about $5 a ton.

An 8½ cent an hour pay increase granted steelworkers was the second factor affecting steel costs. U. S. Steel last week touched off a general cost boost of about $4 a ton.

It remains to be seen whether steel demand will taper off to balance steel supply, Steel said. The magazine stated:

"The rest of this year will be a test period for the new and higher steel prices."

Canadian Freighter Sinks, 1 Missing

PORT ARTHUR, Ont. (AP) — A Canadian freighter sank Saturday and one of her seaman was missing and presumed drowned after the ship collided in a heavy Lake Superior fog with another vessel.

The sunken ship was the Canada Steamship Line's 4,432-ton Scotiadoc, which went down with a cargo of 253,000 bushels of wheat, valued at more than $500,000.

She collided with the 4,959-ton Burlington, owned by the Paterson Steamship Lines.

The Scotiadoc's 29 crewmen abandoned ship, but one, Wallace MacDermid, 37, of Sault Ste. Marie, was reported missing.

Rice With Italian Meat Sauce Scores Big Hit

There will be no tardy tots avoiding the table if it is broadcast that tender rice with a savory Italian meat sauce is coming from the kitchen. The wonderful aromas from the skillet or the saucepan will be plenty of publicity to arouse any "dallying Dads" and bring them to the head of the table in a hurry.

RICE WITH ITALIAN MEAT SAUCE

Ingredients : 2 tablespoons fat, ½ cup diced onion, ½ cup diced green pepper, 1 lb. ground beef, 2 8-oz. cans tomato sauce, ½ cup tomato catsup, 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce, 1 teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper, 4½ cups hot cooked rice.

Method: Melt the fat in a saucepan or skillet. Fry the onion, green pepper and beef in the fat until the onion and pepper are tender and the beef is cooked through and slightly browned. Add more fat if necessary to keep mixture from sticking. Add the tomato sauce, the tomato catsup, Worcestershire sauce, salt and pepper. Cook over a low heat for 10 minutes. Serve over the hot cooked rice. Serves 10.

Bondleys Honored By Spanish War Vets and Auxiliary

Mr and Mrs. Elmer R. Bondley who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary earlier this month, were honor guests at dinner when Marion Camp No. 32, United Spanish War Veterans and Betsy Ross Auxiliary met Friday in the Navy Club Rooms.

The table was centered with a large cake decorated in yellow and bearing the inscription "50th Wedding Anniversary." Seated with Mr. and Mrs. Bondley were W. H. Melby, camp commander, T. E. Andrews, who served as the first commander of the camp, Mrs. Mary Miller, sister of Mrs. Bondley, and Miss Kay Evans of Delaware, granddaughter of the celebrants. Mrs. Bondley served as the first president of the auxiliary.

Mrs. T. E. Andrews, president, on behalf of the auxiliary, presented Mr. and Mrs. Bondley with a gift and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Midlam presented them with a large bouquet of Madonna Lilies.

A short business session held by the camp, was followed by a meeting of the auxiliary. Reports on the department convention held recently at Columbus was given by Mrs. Andrews. Plans were discussed for entertaining the Northwestern Booster Association here on Sept. 13. The association is made up of camps and auxiliaries in the north and western part of the state.

8 From County To Visit Camp For Crippled Children

Eight children from Marion County will be sent to Camp Pittinger near McCutchenville in August with money contributed in the annual Easter Seal Campaign. The camp is for crippled children and is run by the Ohio Society for Crippled Children.

Children to be sent by the Marion County Society will be selected by city and county nurses on the basis of their ability to be away from their parents and other standards set up by officials of the camp.

Carl M. O'Gara will be the camp director. He formerly directed the camp directed by the Los Angeles Society for Crippled Children. He was also associated with UCLA as assistant supervisor of physical education.

Besides O'Gara, there will be 20 adult cabin counselors who will help direct camp activities. Two doctors and a dentist from Tiffin will be available at the camp. The children will be examined by a registered nurse on arrival at the camp.

The same type of recreational and educational facilities available at camps for normal children are available at Camp Pittinger. These include swimming, hiking, softball, dramatics, model-making, and needle-craft.

Opening day this year has been set for Aug. 4. The camp will conduct two sections, one for boys and girls 7 to 12, and one for boys and girls 13 to 17. The first section will be held from Aug. 4 to 16; the second section from Aug. 18 to 30.

Officials of the camp point out that the diversions and new scenes offered in a camp such as this are important in the life of handicapped children who are deprived of the facilities open to many normal children.

Two Paratroopers Collide in Air, Descend Together

TOKYO (AP)—U. S. Army Capt. George H. Page of Rye Beach, N. Y., said he felt a jolt that "almost jerked me right out of my harness" a moment after his parachute opened during a practice jump over Southern Japan.

"I looked up and saw a leg dangling over the side of my silk," explained the captain, who was taking part in recent maneuvers of the 483rd Troop Carrier Wing.

"I asked the fellow who had landed on the parachute if he could get off, but he shouted back that he was tangled in his own 'chute."

Page threw a line around the other jumper's leg and they descended together. Neither was injured seriously.

Pamphlets Available On Social Security

The Social Security Administration at 127 W. Church St. has announced pamphlets are available for the public explaining the benefits of social security insurance. They are free for the asking.

Leaflet No. 27 contains information regarding the types of possible payments. For anyone interested in further information, Booklet No. 35 contains the complete story of the social security program in easy to understand language.

The Social Security Administration Office said not enough people were aware of the benefits to which they were entitled under the Social Security program.

The office is open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Film Actress Is June Bride

Gloria de Haven, who says she always wanted to be a June bride, is one today.

The 27-year-old Miss de Haven prepared to leave for New York today with her new husband, Martin S. Kimmel, 37, a New York realtor. They were married yesterday at the home of friends. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Harold Silver.

It was the second marriage for both. Miss de Haven was divorced from actor John Payne in 1949. They had two children.

The film actress and TV star said she plans to fly from New York tonight to fill a night club engagement at Las Vegas. Later she and her new husband plan a European honeymoon.

U.S. Officers Inspect Yugoslav Air Bases

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—The U. S. Air Force chief of operations, Maj. Gen. Roger H. Ramey, and a staff of ranking officers started an inspection today of Yugoslav air bases, establishing a new precedent in American-Yugoslav military co-operation.

The party, which arrived in Belgrade yesterday, came here officially to check on the use of American jet planes and other equipment being furnished Yugoslavia in increasing amounts. A spokesman for the Americans said, however, they had been invited to "inspect" Yugoslav bases.

Soap Box Derby Clinic Scheduled Tuesday Night

The fourth in a series of soap Box Derby clinics will be held on Tuesday evening at the YMCA. The clinics are held to prepare the boys taking part in the Derby for the big race and to acquaint them with the rules and regulations.

The clinics are being held every Tuesday night this month and will conclude July 7. A member of the inspection committee is present to go over the manual with the boys and to answer any of their questions. They encourage the boys to build racers and show them the fine points of making good ones. The clinics are important for the boys wishing to take part in the Derby and all are urged to attend, Lions Club members sponsoring the Derby reported today.

Paul Shelton is the chairman of the inspection committee and Norman Fogt is chairman of the registration committee. Fogt is assisted by Paul Snider. The clinics begin at 7 p.m.

MARK OCCASIONS

GALION — When Mr. and Mrs. Paul Scherer observed their 31st wedding anniversary June 14, they also announced the engagement of their daughter, Pauline, to Maurice R. Riter of Galion, son of Mrs. Paul J. Miller who is now living in Munich, Germany. No date has been announced for the Scherer-Riter nuptials. The celebration at the Scherer home also marked the 11th wedding anniversary of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller.

Self-Exiled Cambodian King Returns

SAIGON, Indochina (AP)—Cambodia's King Norodom Sihanouk has returned to is Indochinese kingdom as abrutly as he left it a week ago, but today he avoided his capital city, Phnom Penh.

Terminating his self-imposed exile to Bangkok, capital of neighboring Thailand, the King and his retinue returned to Cambodia by motor yesterday and stopped at Battambang, 150 miles northwest of Phnom Penh.

The King's mother, Princess Souramrith, who exerts great influence over the monarch, left yesterday to join him. Premier Pen Nout, to whom the King had given full government power on his departure, remained in the capital.

Norom previously said he left his country to enforce his demands for Cambodian freedom from France and that he would stay away until these were granted. There was speculation here today that he might remain in Battambang—claiming he was in exile from his capital—to direct his independence campaign from there.

Cambodia, one of the three Associated States of Indochina, now has almost complete control of her local government but her defense and foreign relations still are largely under French direction.

French officials in Saigon and Paris have expressed bewilderment at the King's actions, saying they have met his demands and have received no new requests from him. After his flight, the French told Cambodian officials they could not resume negotiations looking toward more Cambodian independence until the King returned.

U.S. Tourists Big Income Source To Foreign Countries

WASHINGTON (AP) — American travelers contributed a record of nearly one billion dollars to foreign countries in 1952, the Commerce Department reported today.

The total includes 822 million dollars spent abroad and 175 million dollars paid in fares to foreign ships and planes. American air and ship lines collected another 18 million dollars from American passengers.

The biggest rise in American travel outlays was in the European and Mediterranean area, but Canada got more than all those countries put together—268 million dollars as against 256 million.

Among European countries, France, Italy and Britain obtained the major share of U. S. travel dollars. American tourists in Mexico spent a record 180 million dollars.

Red Cross Holding Annual Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP) — The accent was on Korea today as delegates assembled here for the 22nd convention of the American Red Cross.

Officials said much of the talk at the three-day meeting running through Wednesday will be concentrated on relief and rescue problems in the embattled Korean Peninsula.

President Eisenhower will address the final session of the convention Wednesday night.

CHURCH CLASS MEETS

The Loyal Crusaders Class of the First Church of God met Thursday night at the home of the teacher, Monroe Morgan, and Mrs. Morgan near Cardington. Harry Koch presided, and devotions were by Robert Koch, with prayer by Mr. Morgan. Entertainment included games. The next meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mattix near Ashley.

Information Agency Chief Asks Funds

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Dr. Robert L. Johnson says he will tell Congress a proposed 112½ million dollar budget for the International Information Administration is not enough for the organization he heads.

Johnson said yesterday he will ask Congress to approve that amount but declared, "We need a minimum of 123 million dollars or even more." The 112½ million dollar limit was set by the Budget Bureau.

The IIA director was interviewed on the ABC television show, "Junior Press Conference." He told the student newsmen that even if Congress does approve the amount proposed, "we might have to eliminate some countries and programs entirely."

He said he thought it was a coincidence that President Eisenhower's recent "book burning" statement came at a time when there was some contention over the removal of some books from our overseas libraries.

There is no list of books not allowed in our libraries overseas, he said, only a directive—and "our librarians are given a great deal of freedom in interpreting that directive."

Johnson said a four or five-man bipartisan group will review the books and any found unfit will be placed in a warehouse.

Truman Pays 'Non-Political' Visit to Capital

WASHINGTON (AP)—Harry S. Truman is back in Washington for a week of seeing old friends and "keeping away from politics."

The former President had little else to say when he checked in last night at the Mayflower Hotel on his first visit since leaving the White House Jan. 20.

He and Mrs. Truman had motored from Wheeling, W. Va. Truman plans to leave Friday for speaking engagements in Philadelphia and New York before going back home to Independence, Mo.

Daughter Margaret, who now lives in New York City, joined her parents at the hotel.

Truman's Washington schedule calls for private meetings with men who served in his Cabinet, a luncheon with old Senate friends and later with fund-raisers for his projected library, and a dinner honoring Chief Justice and Mrs. Vinson.

Teacher-Pupil Romance Has Happy Ending

AMBOY, Ill. (AP)—Stanley W. Gibson and Miss Joyce Underhile wrote a happy ending yesterday to their teacher-pupil romance that cost Gibson his job two years ago.

Gibson, 33, and Miss Underhile, 19, who once was the only pupil in one of his Amboy high school English classes, were married in the First Congregational Church. The ceremony was attended by about 150 relatives and friends.

School authorities tried to fire Gibson in 1951 when he began dating his pupil. They relented in the face of community support for the couple, and Gibson resigned instead.

Now Gibson is office manager of an Amboy rug factory. His bride, a University of Illinois sophomore, will not return to school next fall.

CHAMPS DISPLAY WINNING FORM. Jerry Roy, 13, of Huntington, W.Va., won the 1953 national marbles championship with some fancy shooting at Asbury Park, N.J. Here, the new champion poses with Arlene Riddett, 14, of Yonkers, N.Y., queen of the nibs shooters. On his way to the title, Jerry set a new world's record of 53 victories in 60 games played in the first four days of the marbles tournament.

Taft Hopes For Compromise On Bricker Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Taft (R—Ohio) said today he hopes the State Department will attempt to draft a compromise version of a proposal by Sen. Bricker (R—Ohio) to limit treaty-making powers.

Secretary of State Dulles has opposed Bricker's proposed constitutional amendment in its present form and President Eisenhower has said he fears it would hamper his conduct of foreign relations.

The Bricker proposal, as approved by the Senate Judiciary Committee, would prevent any treaty from having effect as domestic law unless Congress approved.

Church Conference Studies Proposal

TIFFIN, O. (AP)—Delegates to the ninth triennial meeting of the Evangelical and Reformed Church's general synod resume debate today on a proposed organization plan.

Church officials say the proposed changes, submitted by a study committee, would involve considerable expenditure. The plan's main object is to set up 14 church areas to supplement but not supplant the regular district synods. Each area would have a full time president and handle promotional and Evangelistic activities.

3 Ohio Students To Spend Summer On Europe Farms

WASHINGTON (AP)— Three Ohioans are among the 30 young men and women who will spend the next few months working with farm families in Europe.

They will be commissioned "Grass roots ambassadors" today by Russell L. Riley, director of the State Department's Educational Exchange Service, at a ceremoney before a general assembly of the 23rd National 4 - H Club camp.

The Ohioans, and the countries they will visit, included Geraldine A. Bowdler of Kingsville, The Netherlands; James A. Meyer of North Fairfield, Luxembourg, and June E. Boyd, of Millersburg, England and Wales.

In 1952 Great Britain had 733,000 foreign visitors who spent 218.5 million dollars in the country.

Rhee Threatens To Withdraw ROK Troops

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Herald Tribune reported today from Seoul that South Korea has given formal notification that it will withdraw its troops from United Nations operational control rather than go along with the present armistice terms.

The newspaper's copyrighted dispatch, by Correspondent Marguerite Higgins, appeared in print before today's conference between Gen. Mark Clark, U.N. commander, and South Korean President Syngman Rhee. After the meeting, Clark indicated Rhee does not now plan to yank his 16 ROK divisions from the UNC. Clark said he was encouraged by the talk.

In her dispatch, Miss Higgins said that "the cease-fire as negotiated at Panmunjom is definitely out.

"An armistice in Korea is as far away as ever unless the United Nations and the Communists can agree on some formula for enforcing a separate truce exclusive of the South Koreans."

The views of the South Korean government were transmitted by Rhee in a letter intended both for the United Nations Command and for President Eisenhower, the paper reported.

Govt. Agents Seek to Quiz Akron Man

AKRON, O. (AP)—Frank Milano, whose name appeared in testimony gathered by the Kefauver Crime Committee concerning Cleveland's old Mayfield road gang, says he does not know why two U. S. immigration agents tried to question him at his daughter's wedding.

Since he was not born in this country, he could lose his U. S. citizenship by living outside the nation for more than two years at a time.

But he said Sunday, "I have not missed a Christmas with my family here since I went to Mexico." And he added he had not violated any other immigration law regulations.

Milano, now 62, went to Mexico in 1934 while tax investigators were checking his income and its sources. He lived there for long periods.

The immigration men met Milano Saturday outside St. Sebastian Church where his daughter, Grace, was married to Dr. Nino Sabino Scarpelli of Cleveland. Milano got sick as the agents accompanied him to is 21-acre estate here and a heart specialist advised against questioning him.

The Cleveland immigration office declined to discuss the agents' visit to Milano.

Marietta Worker Shot in Quarrel

ATHENS, O. (AP)—Ford Sampson, 35-year-old Marietta construction worker, died Sunday en route to Sheltering Arms Hospital in Athens after being shot during an argument at nearby New England.

Sheriff's deputies said Sampson, his wife, Betty, and a brother-in-law, Orville Stover, visited the home of Mrs. Catherine Britton, a widow and mother of three children. Sampson was shot in the afternoon but deputies said they had not learned the nature of the argument.

They held Mrs. Britton and Stover without charge of questioning.

IT MEANS a great deal to a family, in time of need, to be served by a funeral director who has a definite, personal interest in the welfare of that family. This attitude can prevail only if a funeral director is sincerely interested in offering a service which is truly complete and comforting.

We have this very necessary attitude toward our duties, not just because we know it will improve our service, but because we DO have a sincere interest in the needs and wishes of those who have chosen us to help them in their time of need. We know that this attitude is greatly appreciated by every family we serve.

Yanks Increase Margin; Easter Returns to Tribe Lineup

Boone's Three-Base Blow Robs New York of Sweep

By JACK HAND
AP Sportswriter

If the New York Yankees keep pouring it on, they'll break the 1906 Chicago Cubs' all-time record of winning 116 games. Unless something cracks they should be able to take a month vacation in September and bring up the Kansas City club to finish out the schedule.

After yesterday's split with Detroit, the Yanks were playing 46-14 ball for a .767 percentage. At the same rate they'll wind up at 118-36. High for the American League is the Yanks' 110 victories in 1927.

With an 11½-game lead at this stage of the race, the American League record of a 19½-game pennan-winning margin by the 1936 Yanks also is in danger. They might even threaten that fabulous 26½-game lead held by Pittsburgh's 1902 champs in the National.

The Yanks took advantage of another lapse by Cleveland yesterday, dividing a double-header with Detroit as the Indians lost to Washington, 5-1. As a result, New York picked up another half game on the Tribe, now threatened from below by Chicago. New York won the first game, 6-3, for Whitey Ford on homers by Mickey Mantle, Billy Martin and Yogi Berra but lost the second, 10-3, as Walt Dropo drove in four runs with a homer and two singles.

Chicago climbed within a game of Cleveland by breaking even with Philadelphia. The White Sox came back to cop the second 9-4, on homers by Fred Marsh, Ferris Fain and Minnie Minoso after Harry Byrd had shut them out with seven hits, 5-0, in the first game.

The St. Louis Browns broke a six-game losing streak on Bobo Holloman's two-hit 2-0 winner over Boston in the second game after losing the opener, 3-1, on Skinny Brown's flashy three-hitter.

Milwaukee staged another of its comebacks to get a 6-6 tie with the New York Giants in a second game, called by darkness after eight innings. In the opener, Milwaukee suffered a 5-0 defeat when Ruben Gomez threw a two-hitter.

Because Brooklyn bowed to Chicago, 3-2, on a 10th-inning homer by Eddie Miksis, an ex-Dodger, the Milwaukee National League lead remained intact at 2½ games.

Only Philadelphia among the first division clubs gained on Milwaukee. St. Louis' five-game winning streak went up in smoke as Pittsburgh dumped the Cardinals, 5-2, and Philadelphia split a pair with Cincinnati, winning 5-2 and losing 5-3.

Ford survived a rugged ninth inning in 102-degree heat at Yankee Stadium to go the distance in his eighth triumph after the Yanks knocked out Hal Newhouser in the fourth.

Billy Hoeft, with the help of Ned Garver, copped the second game for the Tigers. The loss was charged against reliefer Tom Gorman, who yielded a triple to Ray Boone with the bases loaded in the fifth.

Spec Shea held Cleveland to three hits to win his sixth, spoiling Art Houtteman's starting debut as an Indian.

Holloman, aided by Satch Paige in the ninth, did a fine job on the Red Sox in the second game against the Browns. The only hits off Bobo were doubles by Billy Goodman in the third and Gene Stephens in the fifth.

Gus Zernial's 18th homer and Pete Suder's third were the big blows behind Byrd in his shutout against Chicago, ending a four-game losing streak for the A's.

Gomez pitched a brilliant game for the Giants at Milwaukee, retiring the last 22 men in order. The Puerto Rican rookie threw eight perfect innings, yielding only two hits in the second. He didn't walk a man.

Miksis' first-pitch home run in the 10th broke up a tight battle at Chicago between Bubba Church, recently acquired from Cincinnati, and Dodger rookie Bob Milliken.

Danny O'Connell's two-run double and Murry Dickson's steady nine-hit pitching set up Pittsburgh's victory.

Cincinnati's opening game defeat stretched their losing streak to five games but Bell's homer broke it in the second game, giving rookie Fred Baczewski ex-Cub, his first big league victory.

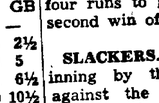
SHORT SPORTS

By John Short

BLISTERING PACE. That's just what Bob Clouse, new pro at the Mar-O-Del Golf Course has been setting after becoming acquainted with the fairways and greens.

He really gave par a belting when he toured the nine-hole layout twice with rounds of 32 and 34 for an eight-under 66. Par for the course is 74.



SHORT

Bob was playing with Ike Jordan and Don Russell when he turned in the sensational score. Russell came in with a three-over 77 and Jordan scored an 86. Clouse has told Marion Hinklin and Ray Augenstein, owners of the course, that he expects to break 30 before the summer is over.

—:—

CHARGE AN ERROR. Last week we robbed Bob McKeever of a hard-earned win while pitching for Smitty's All-Stars. The Stars and the K & W Plumbers were hooked up in a battle for the league lead in YMCA action.

The Stars squeezed through to a 1-0 verdict but in the report handed The Star by a representative of the Marion Softball Commission, Fats Millisor was listed as the pitcher for the winners. McKeever started and went all the way.

Later in the week, McKeever was called on to pull one out of the fire for the Stars. He came on in the fourth frame and held GI Post hitless the rest of the way.

While McKeever was handcuffing the Legion hitte rs, his mates went to work and pushed over four runs to give their hurler his second win of the week.

—:—

SLACKERS. Last week's 17-run inning by the Boston Red Sox against the hapless Detroit Tigers sent baseball fans scurrying for the record books. While the explosion was a modern record for major league baseball it fell far short of the professional record.

The top inning in the books was staged by Tarbora, N.C., of the Class D Coastal Plains League in 1951. The team had just been voted out of the league after the Philadelphia Athletics had withdrawn their support.

The Tarboro team and the opposition had rolled along for five innings when the farce occurred. Before the first Tarbora hitter had been retired in that inning, 21 runs crossed the plate and 25 batters had been up. Before it was all over, 24 runs had scored and 29 batters had gone to the plate.

The final score was 31-4.

Clark Metal, VFW Win in Pony Loop

VFW and Clark Metal Products botched wins Saturday night in the newly-organized Pony League. VFW belted Alloy, 15-4, and Clark nipped G and G Builders by a 6-5 count.

A 10-run splurge in the third inning clinched the opening game for the VFW squad. Alloy rallied for three in the sixth but the lead was too great. Jones was the winning hurler. The winners collected 12 hits.

Clark Metal pushed over a pair of runs in the seventh frame to nip the Builders. A triple by Burns was the big blow in the rally.

The winners jumped into a 2-0 lead in the first frame when two runs scored on an infield error. Hart had the only hit of the inning. The Builders came back with three tallies in the second on singles by White, Anderson and Smiley, two bases on balls and an error. They added a single run in the third on a home run by White. Doubles by Claypool and Anderson and an error accounted for another in the sixth.

Clark scored single runs in the third and fifth before coming from behind in the last inning. Bailey's double followed by a single by Kerry drove in the fifth-inning run.

New Pitcher Hurls 5-3 Win For Cincinnati

Redlegs Capture Nightcap After Loss in Opener

CINCINNATI (AP)—Fred Baczewski, who came to the Redlegs in a trade with the Chicago Cubs, pitched a 5-3 victory over Philadelphia in the second game of the Sunday doubleheader after the Rhinelanders dropped the opener, 5-2.

Baczewski's triumph broke a five-game losing streak for the Redlegs.

The fourth-place Phillies wasted no time in getting to Harry Perkowski in the first game, driving him from the mound with three runs on three doubles, a single and a walk while he was getting only two out in the first frame.

The Redlegs got two runs back in the second when Andy Seminick's double, the first of is three hits, scored Ted Kluszewski and Bob Borkowski, who had singled.

Jim Konstanty kept them scoreless after that. The Phils picked up another run in the fifth off Clyde King and their last run in the eighth when Earl Torgeson homered off Jackie Collum.

Cincinnati scored first in the nightcap when Jim Greengrass and Borkowski singled in the second and Jim came home as Seminick was hitting into a double play.

The Phils went into the lead with two runs in the third, after two were out, on a walk, Connie Ryan's triple and Richie Ashburn's single. They were held scoreless after that until Johnny Wyrostek homered with none on in the ninth.

Baczewski and Rocky Bridges opened the Redleg third with singles. Bobby Adams forced Bridges, but Gus Bell came through with his 15th homer over the rightfield bleacher screen, good for three runs.

Bell knocked in his fourth run of the game with a single in the fifth after Bridges walked and stole second.

REDLEGS SIGN TWO

CINCINNATI, O. (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs have announced the signing of two young Ohio University graduates for their Burlington, Ia., farm club in the Three-Eye League. They are Vince Costello, first baseman from Magnolia, O., and pitcher Don Kries of Philo.

SETS RECORD. Sim Iness (above) of Southern California, wipes off the discus he used to set a new world record in the NCAA track meet Saturday at Lincoln, Neb. Iness hurled the discus 190 feet and ⅞ inches. The former world record of 186 feet, 11 inches was held by Fortune Gordien of Minnesota.

First, Short Top Contests

Voting Close in Poll For All-Star Posts

CHICAGO (AP) — First base and shortstop were two hotly-contested positions for both the American and National League teams as the annual All-Star baseball pool neared the halfway point today.

The vote by fans to decide the starting lineups for the interleague game in Cincinnati July 14 ends at midnight July 3.

In the American League poll, Ferris Fain of Chicago, Mickey Vernon of Washington and Eddie Robinson of Philadelphia were in a tight three-way fight for the first base spot. Fain leads with 60,286 votes to Vernon's 58,312 and Robinson's 55,729.

For shortstop, Phil Rizzuto of New York leads Chico Carrasquel of Chicago 59,364 to 56,202.

Ted Kluszewski of Cincinnati and Gil Hodges of Brooklyn were top first base candidates for the National League team. Kluszewski leads 61,783 to 59,406.

Pee Wee Reese of Brooklyn led Granny Hamner of Philadelphia 60,882 to 57,193 for the shortstop post.

Same Old Story---Dusty Hooper Wins Fourth in Row

Paul "Dusty" Hooper scored his fourth consecutive win in the feature event at the Marion speedway Sunday night in one of the most spectacular events ever staged at the local track. Twenty-three cars started in the 25-lap event. Hooper immediately jumped into the lead and led until Bill Krohmer passed him on the sixth lap. Both boys put on a burst of speed, and continued bumper to bumper until Hooper moved to the front in the 15th lap. Ralph Ray, one of the cars, well back in the race, overturned in the middle of the track on the 18th lap and this resulted in the race being stopped until the track could be cleared. Ray escaped uninjured. When the race began at the start of the 17th lap, Hooper led Krohmer by a car length and in the 20th lap as Krohmer went into the southwest turn, he apparently accelerated too high on the bank and went over. The car made one complete somersault, but Krohmer was not hurt. From this point on, Hooper had things to himself. Glen McKnight and Dick Grice finished behind Hooper. Krohmer's car wasn't badly damaged and he's expected back next week.

Krohmer did get some consolation earlier as he set the fastest qualifying time of 23.21 seconds . . . only .06 seconds off the track record held by Dude Grice, owner of the car now chauffered by Hooper. Krohmer also bested Hooper in the second heat race. Krohmer finished first, Dick Moffitt was second and Hooper, third.

The other heat race was won by Vernon Myers of Fremont, the original member of the 1953 Up-Side Down Club. Don Stevens was second in this event and Bobby Harris, third. The figure-eight race was won by Glen McKnight with Bobby Harris second and Dick Moffitt, third. Neither Hooper or Krohmer competed in the Figure 8.

The semi-final, for strictly stock cars, and ran on the short track, was won by Marion's Don Stephens, with Joe Erwin second and Jim Hamilton, third.

Hooper, in addition to winning last night's feature and placing second in the time trials, walked off with the feature event at Kenton yesterday afternoon.

The beauty contest staged last night, with the drivers and pit crews in competition, was won by the driver and crew of 254, driven by Billy Collier.

Krohmer rolled his over in the feature, and in the time trials, Fran Fouts of Mt. Vernon, rolled his over and over again on the northwest turn. His car will race no more as it was practically rolled into a round ball. Paul Mayes also rolled his car over the northwest turn. It was badly damaged. At least two others were over the bank during the night's races, but just a few extra dents and bruises were noted on these cars.

Next week's program will be similar to last night's, with the exception of the suicide race. It will be held instead of the figure eight race, as Cecil Addams, local promoter, plans to hold these two events on alternate weeks.

Yesterday's STARS

Batting — Walt Dropo, Tigers—Hit two home runs and drove in a total of six runs as Detroit split doubleheader with New York Yankees.

Pitching—Ruben Gomez, Giants—Held Milwaukee to two singles and retired last 22 batters in order for 5-0 victory.

SCHEDULE HOMECOMING

ASHLEY—The annual homecoming will be held at Westfield Methodist Church, north west of Ashley, on Sunday, June 28. A basket dinner and program are scheduled. The Rev. Howard Mumma of Broadway Methodist Church Columbus will speak.

More than 2,700 GI's stationed in England have married British girls—1,300 of them last year.

Country Club Golfers In Tourney Play

Wayne Jenkins and Herb Petrich walked off with top golf laurels last week at the Marion Country Club. Jenkins won the Class A flight of the Wednesday tournament while Petrich headed the Class A field Saturday.

In the Wednesday tournament, Leo Groll came in first in the Class B flight. Paul Hunt was second and Carl Sheehe was third. Dr. Dan Brickley copped the C Flight with Cilne Welch coming in second. Leo Groll annexed the prize for low number of putts and John Baxter was second.

Petrich edged out Russ Reichardt in the Saturday action. Knute Minard finishing third in Flight A. Dr. Dan Brickley was first in the B Flight. Robert Cripps took second. Jack Weis copped third, Warren Rowley was fourth and James Harmon was fifth. Edwin L. Mitchell led the C Flight with Cline Welch second and Fred Sage third.

Jack Stoddard, Country Club pro, announced today that qualifying play for the President's Cup matches had been completed and part of the first round matches would be held this week.

Winners of the three flights will meet in an 18-hole match set at the conclusion of the tourney for the match title, he said.

First round matches announced by Stoddard follow: A flight, J. B. Bray against Bob McKeever, Russ Reichardt, bye, David Isaly against Herb Petrich, John Dugan, Hastings and Maurice Cornell, byes, and John Vornholt against David Pollak; B Flight, Jay Maish Jr. against Marion Cheney, Robert Cripps against Carl Knirk, R. L. Morgan against William Buettin, Knute Minard against Paul Hunt, William Foster against Carl Sheehe, Les Vandomelin against Warren Rowley and Joe Scandling and E. J. Kinter, byes.

Only one match is scheduled this week in C Flight. That will put William Charle against Lou Cummins. Flight C linksmen set for action next week include Francis Huber, William Eickenberry, Cass Sisler, Clifford Boettcher, John J. Dugan, Fred Sage and William B. Leffler.

Indians, Toledo Tied for AA Lead

By The Associated Press

Indianapolis and Toledo were running neck and neck in the American Association lead today with Kansas City only a half game behind after a full Sunday doubleheader schedule.

There were three sweeps, with Louisville and St. Paul providing the day's big thrill.

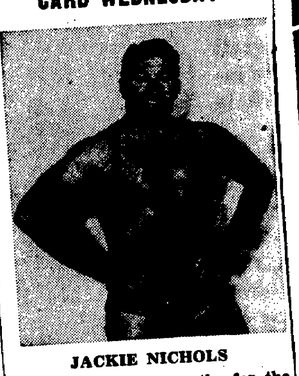
Louisville won the first game from the Saints 4-2 as Bill Henry hurled a seven-hitter. The nightcap went 19 innings before Louisville won, 2-1 on Eddie Lyons' one-out single scoring Stann Hollmig from second base.

Lyons' blow spoiled a tremendous pitching performance by the Saints' Wade Browning, who went all the way, allowing 12 hits and fanning ten.

Other double victories were turned in by Toledo, 12-3 and 3-0 over Charleston, and by Kansas City, 6-5 and 7-6 over Minneapolis.

Indianapolis split with last-place Columbus, winning the first game 3-1 and losing the second by the same score.

JACKIE NICHOLS HEADLINE "BIG" ARMORY MAT CARD WEDNESDAY



JACKIE NICHOLS

The best news in months for the Marion Armory Wrestling Fans is that Jackie Nichols is on the card; but that is not all, for the balance of the program lines up some of the biggest TV stars. Nichols has drawn for his opponent in the main event, today's greatest Greek wrestler, George "Golden Greek" Macricostas. The 2 out of 3 fall semi-final speaks for itself for Chris Belkas, another great Greek grappler, wrestles the best wrestler Detroit ever turned out, Lou Klein. The 8:30 Match could rate a main go billing for Frank "Cave Man" Marconi wrestles the popular New Zealander, Dano O'Shocker, who hasn't lost a fall in Marion. No raise in prices for this outstanding card. General $1.00. Reserved Ringside $1.50. Kids 50c. Come on fans, let's pack the Armory Wednesday night and give Jackie a big welcome. Better call Markert & Lewis early for the best ringside.

Luke To Bolster Attack, Ready For Action Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Big Luke Easter goes back into the lineup today as the Cleveland Indians try to bolster their faltering batting attack and get back in the win column.

The first baseman has been on the bench since a pitched ball broke a bone in his left foot during the fourth game of the season.

The Tribe punched out only three hits against Washington's Spec Shea Sunday while losing, 5-1, their second straight loss in three starts against the Nats. The series ends with today's doubleheader.

Art Houtteman, traded to Cleveland from Detroit June 15, pitched well in his first start for the Indians but got shabby fielding support—and only one run to work on.

Shortstop George Strickland, made two errors in the first inning, allowing three Nat runs.

He fumbled Eddie Yost's grounder and later threw wild to second on a ball tagged by Mickey Vernon. Both Yost and Pete Runnels, who was hit by a pitched ball, scored on the overthrow. And before the ball was thrown in from the outfield, Vernon got to third. Clyde Vollmer's single scored Vernon.

Vernon's single in the seventh scored Yost, who walked and was sacrificed to second.

Dale Mitchel fielded extremely cautiously on a ball hit by Yost in the eighth and it went for a double, scoring Wayne Terwilliger who walked.

Al Rosen doubled for Cleveland in the fifth, got to third as Harry Simpson grounded out, and then scored the only Indian run on Billy Glynn's fly.

Hamilton And Jones Win At Richwood

Jones won the first feature race at the Richwood Speedway Friday night only to be beat out by a fast-moving Jim Hamilton of Richwood in the second feature event.

Jones led for 22 laps of the second feature when he got tied up in traffic and was passed by Hamilton. On the next lap Jones again forged ahead. It was a nip and tuck battle in which Hamilton came out the winner by less than a car-length.

Dick Decker thrilled the crowd with a sensational roll on the back stretch. A few minutes later Chet Howard of Mt. Gilead did the same thing on the front straightaway. A five-car pileup stopped the feature the first time. The race was stopped three times to get wrecked cars off the track.

The first-heat race was won by Joe Jones of Galion. The second was taken by Jack Hedges of Delaware. Glen Skinner of Magnetic Springs topped the list in the third and Hamilton went all the way to take the fourth. Dick Decker nabbed the first consolation. Curt Hoskins beat out a fast field in the second consolation.

The next races at the Richwood Speedway will be Tuesday night when stock cars will give a full race program. There is racing every Tuesday and Friday night. Saturday night, July 4 there will be a 500 lap championship at the track starting 33 cars.

In Loving Memory

Of Gladys Mae Fosnaugh, November 13, 1951 - June 22, 1952.

She's in God's garden softly sleeping,
Where the flowers gently wave,
Lies our one we love so dearly, but whom we did not save.
Heaven now protects our darling, earth her lovely casket keeps,
And the angels love to linger where our darling Gladys sleeps.
There's an ache in our hearts today that passing years cannot take away,
A place in our hearts that nothing can fill.
We miss you so, dear little Gladys, and always will.

Already Under Indictment, Faces Two New Charges

A 27-year-old Marion man, indicted May 15 by the grand jury on three counts of forgery, today faced additional charges of passing a bad check and auto theft.

W. J. Meyer of 593 N. Main St. this morning in Municipal Court entered a plea of guilty to the bad check charge and not guilty to the theft charge.

He was bound over to the grand jury under $1,000 bond by Judge W. Dexter Hazen. Unable to post the bond, Meyer was taken to the county jail.

He turned himself over to the Marion County sheriff's office early today telling Sheriff Glenn Obenour that he understood he was wanted on a charge. The warrant citing the charges was signed by Ben Gowin, manager of the Gowin Pure Oil Co. service station at the corner of Center and State Sts.

The warrant charged that Meyer gave a check to the service station for $60 drawn against a nonexistent account at The Fahey Banking Co. on June 4. The check was given as deposit on an automobile he rented from the service station.

After the check was returned by the bank and Meyer failed to return the car within the specified time, Gowin signed the warrant.

Meyer, who pleaded not guilty on the three forgery counts returned by the grand jury, was free on bond pending a hearing. No date has been set for this hearing in Common Pleas Court.

Given New Start in U.S. by Man He Saved

Dutch Underground Hero Visits Marion County

By JERRY EMERY

"The American way of life is wonderful. You have so much of everything!", Antonius exclaimed. Speaking was 33-year-old Antonius Broeren, the first member of the World War II Dutch underground to make his home in the United States. He was in Marion County Saturday on a visit.

Antonius and Wilhelmina Broeren and their three children came to the United States from Schyndel, Holland last December and settled in Peoria, Ill., to start life anew. The previous January the Broeren home had burned and they were in poverty. One year later they are leading a new life in a new world. The new start was made possible by the man whose life had been saved by Broeren during World War II.

It all began back in 1944 when a 9th Air Force glider was shot loose from its guide plane by German anti - aircraft over the small Dutch village of Schyndel. The pilot, Tipton Webb of Peoria, Ill., and three companions, Cecil Rhodes of Rochester, Ind., Rudolph Kos Jr. of Deerfield, Ill., and Tillman Beikes of Indianapolis, Ind., brought the glider to a forced landing in a nearby field.

German soldiers immediately checked the glider for occupants but the fliers escaped by zig zagging across the open fields to a ditch along a nearby road. Here they stayed until the Germans left the area. Broeren, upon seeing the crash of the glider and its occupants escaping, followed them secretly to their hiding places.

When he found them he discovered that Webb had a revolver and a rifle. He had brought Dutch clothes along with him so that the fliers could change and would be harder to recognize. While they were changing into different clothes German soldiers were spotted coming in their direction. Broeren told the fliers how to reach his farm and while they were escaping Broeren held the rifle and revolver under his coat and delayed the Germans by conversation.

Germans Come Close

Broeren hid them in the loft of his father's barn and when the Germans searched the property, they just missed finding the fliers which would have meant both they and Broeren would have been put to death. To make the situation more trying, the Germans stayed over night in the Broeren barn just below the loft where the Americans were hiding. Broeren carried food to the fliers while the German soldiers were sleeping.

After the German troops had left the area Broeren helped the fliers escape to safety through the Dutch underground.

Tipton Webb never forgot this and when Antonius wrote him in 1952 and asked if he would help him get to the United States Webb wasted no time in making complete arrangements. Antonius, Wilhelmina, and their children, 9-year-old Hetty, 7-year-old Henkie and 2-year-old Sjanneke sailed from Rotterdam, Netherlands in December and landed in New York on the 21st.

Webb helped the Dutch family get settled in his home town of Peoria and Antonius got a job in the electroplating department of the Caterpiller Tractor Co. To give you some idea of how much Antonius wants to save his money and buy a home to get settled permanently, he goes to work at the tractor company at 11 p.m., gets off at 7 a.m. then goes to a swank residential area in Peoria and does gardening work from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Two big differences that Broeren mentioned between the U. S. and Holland was that while we have as much meat to eat as we wish here, they could only have a pound and a half a week for the entire family in Holland and one had to work 48 hours for $15 pay.

Guest of Former Resident

Broeren visited Marion County over the week end as the guest of Robert T. Bergrun of Peoria, formerly of Marion. Bergrun is the owner of a 265-acre farm 2½ miles west of Green Camp and brought Broeren along to inspect the farm. Bergrun lived 16 years in Green Camp and attended Pearl Street School, Central Junior High School and two years at Harding High School before leaving the county.

Along with him, Antonius brought three documents awarded to him at the close of the war in 1945. They were certificates of gratitude from the governments of The Netherlands, Great Britain and the United States for risking his life time and again in saving the lives of four American fliers and bravery in the Dutch underground. The U. S. document was signed in person by Dwight D. Eisenhower, then supreme commander of the allied troops in Europe.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago Grain Market

CHICAGO (AP) — Wheat futures opened about one to two cents a bushel lower on the Board of Trade today.

Wheat opened 1½-2⅛ cents lower than the previous finish, July $1.99; corn was down, ¼-⅜, July $1.50¼-1.50, and oats were ⅛ higher to ⅛ lower, July 73⅜—¼. Soybeans were unchanged to two cents lower, July $2.80-2.79½.

18-Year-Old Aussie Picked At Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Youth and brilliance vs. age and experience spell out the struggle starting today on the plush green courts of historic Wimbledon for the championships of the amateur tennis world.

Record books may well list 1953 as the first year of the Ken Rosewall rule.

The 18-year-old Australian with the frozen scowl and the magnificent all-around game already holds the French and Australian titles. He is seeded No. 1 here and in the eyes of old-timers appears destined to inaugurate a personal reign that can last for years and years—unless he turns professional.

This, then, seems the last chance for the veterans—Jaroslav Drobny, the 32-year-old exiled Czech turned Egyptian who was twice a finalist but never a champion; Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, seeded No. 2 and approaching 30; and Gardnar Mulloy, America's top-ranking player but at 39 seeded only fifth.

Rosewall has had one tournament at Wimbledon. He lost to Mulloy early last year but with his doubles partner, Lewis Hoad, he attracted almost as much attentions from the experts as did his compatriot Frank Sedgman, the champion who has since turned professional.

Seixas summed up the Rosewall problem for the others:

"When I'm playing against him he certainly doesn't look like an 18-year-old to me."

Parents Meeting Set in YMCA Camping Program

Parents of all YMCA boys and girls who have enrolled in the Y's annual day camping program have been asked to attend the parents' pre-camp program at the Y Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

The meeting has been called to acquaint parents with the program will get under way July 6. Dean Ludwig, assistant youth secretary for the summer, said a tour of the state capital at Columbus would kick off the program.

YMCA activities this week will include the regular boys and girls crafts program on Tuesday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. The programs will be directed by Carol Sparks.

The first "rubberneck" trip of the summer will be held Thursday when the boys and girls will be taken on a tour of the Quaker Oats plant. This trip also will be supervised by Miss Sparks.

Heat

Kan. Roofs were torn loose, walls and windows blown in by gusts ranging up to 100 miles an hour. One person was killed, several others injured.

Storm damage to crops and communications was reported in Tennessee.

At least 14 persons died of heat prostration and 103 were drowned seeking relief in pools, rivers and lakes. In Michigan a man died of a broken neck after a dive into the water. A woman was fatally injured in a motorboat collision at St. Louis.

Clear skies over most of the country west and south of the Great Lake and prevalence of early morning temperatures in the high 70s in the East indicated the heat wave is not yet broken by the scattered showers and thunderstorms.

NAMED BY STEEL FIRM

SHARON, Pa. (AP)—Sharon Steel Corp. named Wilbur T. Blair of Cincinnati today vice president and treasurer, effective July 15.

Blair comes to Sharon Steel from te Cincinnati branch of the Federal Reserve Bank in Cleveland where he was vice president.

Truce

be obtained" even with South Korea opposing, but added:

"Whether it is violated or not is another thing."

Asked if such a truce would be useless, he answered:

"It would depend on the amount of co-operation (by South Korea)."

Clark described his talk with the fiery, 78-year-old South Korean President as "friendly and encouraging" and said both had agreed to use such a description.

The general said he did not outline any new U. S. policy and added that President Eisenhower's offer to negotiate a mutual security pact with South Korea after a truce had not been withdrawn.

He also said there was nothing to a report he was given authority by Washington to declare martial law in South Korea if he felt it necessary. Clark said he never had considered such an action and reminded newsmen South Korea is a sovereign state.

The Allied commander in chief brought with him from Tokyo former U. S. Ambassador to Japan Robert Murphy, now Clark's civilian diplomatic adviser on truce matters.

Murphy talked with U. S. Ambassador to Korea Ellis O. Briggs during the Clark-Rhee meeting.

Clark said he received a new letter from Rhee just before leaving Tokyo and that it covered many subjects, but he would not discuss it.

Only a short time earlier, South Korea's Acting Prime Minister, Pyun Yung Tai, told reporters his country had given his troops to the U.N. Command and could take them back if it desired.

Pyun said there would be no further mass releases of anti-Communist Nort Korean prisoners if the Allied command guaranteed that no Indian troops or Communist "brain washers" would enter South Korea.

Prince Hal Calls Yankees "Real Good"

NEW YORK (AP)—Hal Newhouser, nearing the end of a brilliant career, rates the current New York Yankees "the best club I ever pitched against."

"I don't go along with the idea that they are a lucky club," said the veteran Detroit left-hander. "You make one mistake, and they're ready to jump on you. They take advantage of every break. It's a real good ball team."

It was cool in the Tigers clubhouse after the steaming 102-degree heat on the Yankee Stadium mound. Newhouser sat on a rubbing table, alternately dragging on a coke and a cigarette. A small white radio blared out the details of the final innings of the first game, in which he had been knocked out of the box.

Old before his time at 32 because of an injury to his left arm, Newhouser paid his respects to young Mickey Mantle, who had blasted him for a 425-foot home run.

"I made a good pitch to him too," he said slowly. "Tried to keep him from pulling. But he just hit it high and away. That boy may become one of the great hitters. He has a terrific advantage on most hitters because he switches at the plate. You never get a chance to work on him."

Newhouser stopped a minute and then added, "I would like to have pitched against him, though, when I had my good stuff."

Although he rates Mantle as a potential great, Newhouser considers Hank Bauer the best hitter in the American League—at least against me."

Radio and Television

By John Crosby

Family Night

Friday night is family night on television. If you're just crazy for the small problems of young married couples, Friday night is your night. If, on the other hand, you figure you have enough small family problems of your own, Friday television may very well just drive you into the nearest saloon.

John Crosby

You can start —if you're manic enough — with the Stuart Erwins (ABC-TV 7:30 p.m. EDT). The Erwins have been on the air quite a spell now, long enough for the show to degenerate into pure and not so pure farce. The last one I looked at was a case of mistaken identity between a guy dressed up as a gorilla and a real gorilla. You can imagine what that led to.

The colored man who acts as comic relief on this show ran right through a garage door, leaving his outline on the wood — just to give you some idea. Haven't seen that gag since the days of Mack Sennett.

THE ERWIN SHOWS sound pretty much as if they're making it up as they go along and the acting, to put it as charitably as possible, is perfunctory. The Erwins and their children more or less walk through it with set expressions of dismay, especially on Stu Erwin. The whole family is unbearably wholesome. In other words, you'll never find anything that your whole family can't walk out on without offending anyone.

After you have your fill of the Erwins, you have your choice of two families. There is "Mama" with Peggy Wood on CBS-TV or there are Ozzie and Harriet on ABC-TV. Mama, of course, is pre-World War I immigrant stuff and, as family comedy goes, it's pretty good. The situations are fairly authentic. It's well acted and produced. It just isn't very funny (and isn't intended to be) and the Scandinavian dialect grates on my nerves after a bit.

FOR MY MONEY, Ozzie and Harriet Nelson are the most entertaining family around. Their children Ricky and David (played by themselves) sound like awfully nice kids and they are not so all-fired full of fresh air and wholesomeness that you'd like to kick them.

The situations the Nelsons get themselves into are largely contrived by Ozzie who is a sort of all-American innocent male, who can be bamboozled by children and without trouble.

But the dialog, much of it's written by Nelson, shows a certain understanding of human beings and has great humor. You hardly ever hear a voice raised on the Ozzie and Harriet show; the situations remain well within the bounds of probability and — well — they're an awfully nice family.

-:-

THE ERWINS ARE strictly middle class; the Nelsons are sort of upper middle class suburbia. If you want to go slumming in the lower classes, then you drop in on the Rileys ("Life of Riley" 8:30 p.m. EDT NBC-TV).

Riley (William Bendix), a worker in a machine shop or some such thing, is easily the stupidest of a whole array of stupid husbands and does the longest double takes currently to be seen on television. He has a fairly dopey wife and a moronic teenage daughter and a wise-cracking next door neighbor, named Gillis.

And the dialog? Well, Riley's wife was reading him the paper one day. "Police urged to stop necking in the park." "Well," said Riley, "it's high time. Those cops shouldn't be necking all the time." Most of the rest of it is equally tiresome.

WHEN YOU GET REAL fed up on this sort of family comedy — the one with the children underfoot —you can turn on the only childless couple around, Mr. and Mrs. North whose problems are not at all wholesome or ordinary. Here romance rears its pretty marcelled head.

When the Norths aren't stumbling over freshly dead corpes, they're kissing. Marital love has survived an unbroken succession of homicides which, it sometimes seems, stretches all the way back to Cain killing Abel. And in all that time Barbara Britton, who plays Pam North, has never even got her hair mussed.

Attend 4-H Camp

COUNTY 4-H members attending 4-H Club Junior Leadership Camp last week at Camp Ohio near Mt. Vernon were Becky Converse of Green Camp and David Moyer of near Prospect (above). They were selected to attend in recognition of their achievements in 4-H Club work.

IN THE SERVICE

Sfc. Donald L. Dewey, whose wife, Alice, lives near Delaware, is serving with the 4th Infantry Division in Germany. Sfc. Dewey is personnel sergeant major in Headquarters Battery of the division's 46th Anti-Aircraft Artillery Battalion. He entered the Army in March 1948, was last stationed at Fort Hayes, O., and arrived overseas last October. A former student of Ohio State University, Dewey worked for Westinghouse in Galion and Mansfield in civilian life. He wears the Parachutist Badge, UN and Korean Service Ribbons, Good Conduct Medal and the Army of Occupation Medal for duty in Japan and Germany.

Richard W. Moses, seaman USN, is scheduled to land in San Diego, Calif., aboard the aircraft carrier USS Valley Forge June 22. Seaman Moses is the son of Mrs. Mary Moses of Kenton. He has been on a tour of Korean waters since last December. Planes from the Valley Forge carried out daily bombing and strafing missions over North Korea. This was the fourth tour of duty for the carrier.

William G. Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Brooks of Kenton recently was promoted to sergeant first class while serving in Korea with the 40th Infantry Division. Brooks, in Korea eight months, is a camouflage foreman in Headquarters of the 578th Engineer Battalion. A veteran of 26 months' Army service, he holds the Army Commendation Ribbon with Metal Pendant and the UN and Korean Service Ribbons. Originally a California National Guard outfit, the division hit the Korean battlefield in early 1952 after intensive field training in Japan.

Pvt. Paul W. Lichtenberger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lichtenberger of near Prospect, recently arrived in Korea and is serving with the 25th Infantry Division. Lichtenberger entered the Army last November and received his basic training at Camp Breckenridge, Ky. He attended Pleasant High School.

East Palestine Storm Loss High

EAST LIVERPOOL, O. (AP) —A thunderstorm, whipping through Central Columbiana County, caused damage estimated today at $10,000 in nearby East Palestine.

Police quoted Mrs. Ethel Hull, as saying she saw a funnel-like cloud Sunday as the high winds struck. But the Cleveland weather bureau said there was no tornado in her area.

A blocked creek flooded the John E. Kemple glass works. Lightning knocked out two city power lines, silenced the police radio temporarily, cut off about 60 telephones and hit a farm house.

Some 40 trees were blown over. No one was hurt.

CORRECT VISION MAKES EVERYTHING SEEM EASIER

2. BUICK ROAD-TESTED
3. BUICK-DEALER GUARANTEE
4. CUSTOMER SATISFACTION

What's behind the PRICE TAG on a USED CAR?

WHEN you shop for a used car, the big question in your mind is — what will you get for your money?

You can't answer that by merely looking the car over, or even listening to the engine. The smart thing to do is to buy your car from a dealer who has a reputation to maintain.

We're Buick dealers. We know it pays to sell dependable cars. We intend to stay in business—to keep making new friends. And we know that the good will of a used-car customer is just as important as that of a man who buys a brand-new Buick.

That's why we recondition and guarantee our best cars—and sell them under a rigid All Square policy. When we're willing to stand behind them, with all our resources and our reputation—you know they're bargains in quality as well as in price!

Most of these are fine one-owner cars—priced low enough so your present car will more than cover the down payment. Come see our All Square cars—this week!
